

Private Air APIS CBP-Approved Service Providers

The following alphabetically-listed service providers have completed testing with CBP and are considered approved to transmit private aviation flight manifests. This approval is not an endorsement by CBP and does not guarantee the timeliness, accuracy, validity or correctness of manifests submitted by these service providers.

The private aircraft pilot, the individual responsible for operation of the aircraft while in flight, is responsible for ensuring the notice of arrival and/or departure and manifest information regarding each individual onboard the aircraft are transmitted to CBP in compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements.

The following list will be updated periodically, as needed.
