

Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset Act of 2000 (CDSOA) Funds Withheld in Special Account as of 09/30/2016

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is currently engaged in litigation that impacts whether, and/or to what extent, the collections noted below are distributable under the CDSOA. As such, CBP is holding the collections noted below in the special account, until a final resolution is reached in the pending litigation. The chart below identifies the antidumping or countervailing duty case number associated with each payment and the fiscal year in which the collections were received by CBP. Upon a final resolution of the aforementioned litigation, including the conclusion of any appeals, the portion of these funds that is determined to be distributable under CDSOA, if any, will be distributed as a supplemental distribution to the affected domestic producers who filed timely certifications in the fiscal year noted below.
