SIX-MONTH CLUB UPDATE

Algeria is no longer a club member. Visitors traveling to the United States are required to be in possession of passports that are valid for six months beyond the period of their intended stay in the United States. Citizens of the countries listed below are exempt the six-month rule and need only have a passport valid for their intended period of stay.

This update supersedes the list found inside CBP's Carrier Information Guide, 2014 edition.
