

U.S. Customs and Border Protection Section 337 Enforcement Seminar

Join us for a program featuring discussions, including:

Preparing for an Exclusion Order
Exclusion Order Enforcement
Administrative Rulings Process (19 CFR Part 177)

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) enforces exclusion orders issued by the U.S. International Trade Commission (the “Commission”) under Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337). Please join us for a program featuring panel discussions regarding this enforcement. The program is aimed primarily at the Section 337 bar and other interested practitioners to provide a greater understanding of CBP’s enforcement role once the Commission issues an exclusion order.
