

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

PROPOSED REVOCATION OF A RULING LETTER AND REVOCATION OF TREATMENT RELATING TO THE TARIFF CLASSIFICATION OF CERTAIN DEVICES KNOWN AS NETWORK ADAPTERS

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: Notice of proposed revocation of a ruling letter, and revocation of treatment relating to the tariff classification of a certain devices known as network adapters.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to section 625(c), Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1625(c)(1)), as amended by section 623 of title VI (Customs Modernization) of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103–182, 107 Stat. 2057), this notice advises interested parties that U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) intends to revoke a ruling letter concerning tariff classification of certain networking equipment known as network adapters under the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Similarly, CBP intends to revoke any treatment previously accorded by CBP to substantially identical transactions. Comments on the correctness of the proposed actions are invited.

DATE: Comments must be received on or before July 16, 2021.

ADDRESS: Written comments are to be addressed to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Office of Trade, Regulations and Rulings, Attention: Erin Frey, Commercial and Trade Facilitation Division, 90 K St., NE, 10th Floor, Washington, DC 20229–1177. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, CBP is also allowing commenters to submit electronic comments to the following email address: 1625Comments@cbp.dhs.gov. All comments should reference the title of the proposed notice at issue and the Customs Bulletin volume, number and date of publication. Due to the relevant COVID-19-related restrictions, CBP has limited its on-site public inspection of public comments to 1625 notices. Arrangements to inspect submitted comments should be made in advance by calling Ms. Erin Frey at (202) 325–1757.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tom P. Beris, Electronics, Machinery, Automotive, and International Nomenclature Branch, Regulations and Rulings, Office of Trade, at (202) 325-0292.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

BACKGROUND

Current customs law includes two key concepts: informed compliance and shared responsibility. Accordingly, the law imposes an obligation on CBP to provide the public with information concerning the trade community's responsibilities and rights under the customs and related laws. In addition, both the public and CBP share responsibility in carrying out import requirements. For example, under section 484 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1484), the importer of record is responsible for using reasonable care to enter, classify and value imported merchandise, and to provide any other information necessary to enable CBP to properly assess duties, collect accurate statistics, and determine whether any other applicable legal requirement is met.

Pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1625(c)(1), this notice advises interested parties that CBP is proposing to revoke a ruling letter pertaining to the tariff classification of certain network devices known as network adapters. Although in this notice, CBP is specifically referring to New York Ruling Letter (NYRL) N301141, dated November 5, 2018 (Attachment A), this notice also covers any rulings on this merchandise which may exist, but have not been specifically identified. CBP has undertaken reasonable efforts to search existing databases for rulings in addition to the one identified. No further rulings have been found. Any party who has received an interpretive ruling or decision (i.e., a ruling letter, internal advice memorandum or decision, or protest review decision) on the merchandise subject to this notice should advise CBP during the comment period.

Similarly, pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1625(c)(2), CBP is proposing to revoke any treatment previously accorded by CBP to substantially identical transactions. Any person involved in substantially identical transactions should advise CBP during this comment period. An importer's failure to advise CBP of substantially identical transactions or of a specific ruling not identified in this notice may raise issues of reasonable care on the part of the importer or its agents for importations of merchandise subsequent to the effective date of the final decision on this notice.

In NYRL N301141, CBP classified certain devices referred to as network adapters in subheading 8517.62.0020, HTSUSA (Annotated), which provides for “Telephone sets...; other apparatus for the transmission or reception of voice, images or other data...: Other apparatus for transmission or reception...: Machines for the reception, conversion, and transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: Switching and routing apparatus.” CBP has reviewed N301141 and has determined the classification of these devices to be in error. It is now CBP’s position that the network adapters should be classified under sub-heading 8517.62.0090, HTSUSA, which provides for “Telephone sets...; other apparatus for the transmission or reception of voice, images or other data...: Other apparatus for transmission or reception...: Machines for the reception, conversion & transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: Other.”

Pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1625(c)(1), CBP is proposing to revoke NYRL N301141 as indicated above and to revoke any other ruling not specifically identified to reflect the analysis contained in the proposed Headquarters Ruling Letter (“HQ”) H316155, set forth as Attachment B to this notice. Additionally, pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1625(c)(2), CBP is proposing to revoke or modify any treatment previously accorded by CBP to substantially identical transactions.

Before taking this action, consideration will be given to any written comments timely received.

RE: Revocation of NY N301141; Classification of network adapters

DEAR MR. MERTZ:

This is in response to a request, submitted by counsel on your behalf on January 19, 2021, for reconsideration of New York Ruling Letter (NY) N301141, dated November 5, 2018. The items concerned are referred to as network adapters (Archer T4U AC1300 wireless network adapter; Archer T9E AC1900 wireless network adapter; TL-WN821N N300 USB network adapter; and TL-WN881ND N300 PCI-E wireless network adapter).

In NY N301141, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) classified the network adapters in subheading 8517.62.0020, Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States Annotated (HTSUSA), which provides for “Telephone sets...; other apparatus for the transmission or reception of voice, images or other data...: Other apparatus for transmission or reception...: Machines for the reception, conversion, and transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: Switching and routing apparatus.”

We have now determined that the network devices subject to N301141 are classifiable in subheading 8517.62.0090, HTSUSA, by application of GRIs 1 and 6. For the reasons set forth below, we hereby propose to revoke NY N301141.

FACTS:

The products at issue are described in N301141as follows:

The first item concerned is the “Archer T4U AC1300” wireless network adapter. This is a USB 3.0 network adapter with a folding external dual band PIFA antenna. This antenna arm has 2 high gain transmitters built-in allowing up to a 400 Mbp transmission rate on the 2.4GHz spectrum and up to a 867 Mbp transmission rate on the 5GHz spectrum. This device is compatible with the 802.11 a/b/g/n/ac wireless standards. Transmit power is <20dBm. The adapter is compatible with the following modulations DBPSK, DQPSK, CCK, OFDM, 16-QAM, 64-QAM, 256-QAM.

The second item concerned is the “Archer T9E AC1900” wireless network adapter. This is a PCI-E network adapter with 3 detachable external omni-directional antennas allowing up to a 600 Mbp transmission rate on the 2.4GHz spectrum and up to a 1300 Mbp transmission rate on the 5GHz spectrum. This device is compatible with the 802.11 a/b/g/n/ac wireless standards. Transmit power is <20dBm. It is CE, FCC, RoHS certified. The adapter is compatible with the following modulations DBPSK, DQPSK, CCK, OFDM, 16-QAM, 64-QAM, 256-QAM.

The third item is the “TL-WN821N N300” USB network adapter. This USB adapter is a 3.0 single band network adapter with an on-board internal antenna. This device has 2 transmitters built in allowing up to a 300 Mbp transmission rate on the 2.4GHz spectrum. This device is compatible with the 802.11 /b/g/n/ wireless standards. Transmit power is <20dBm. It is CE, FCC, RoHS certified. The adapter is compatible with the following modulations DBPSK, DQPSK, CCK, OFDM, 16-QAM, 64-QAM, 256-QAM.

The fourth item is the “TL-WN881ND N300 PCI-E” wireless network adapter. This PCI-E device has 2 single band external detachable antennas allowing up to a 300 Mbp transmission rate on the 2.4GHz spectrum. This device is compatible with the 802.11 /b/g/n/ wireless standards. Transmit power is <20dBm. It is CE, FCC, RoHS certified. The adapter is compatible with the following modulations DBPSK, DQPSK, CCK, OFDM, 16-QAM, 64-QAM, 256-QAM.

In your request for reconsideration, dated January 19, 2021, you provided additional information on the four products at issue:

The Archer T4U AC1300 is a wireless USB adapter that connects a computer to a Wi-Fi network for lag-free video streaming, online gaming, internet surfing, and internet calls. It is inserted into the computer through the USB port and designed to speed up one’s Wi-Fi connection by concentrating a Wi-Fi signal towards a router through support beamforming technology. Although data is transmitted and received through this USB adapter, the adapter does not provide intelligent path selection nor traffic directing function while doing so. Additionally, it does not physically connect individual network devices in a computer network.

The Archer T9E AC1900 is a three-antenna device designed to deliver a faster wireless connection to a computer. While data is transmitted and received through this adapter, the Archer T9E AC1900 does not provide intelligent path selection or traffic directing function while doing so. Additionally, it does not physically connect individual network devices in a computer network, it only physically connects to the computer.

The TL-WN821N N300 is a wireless USB adapter that connects one’s computer to a Wi-Fi network and strengthens the penetration of one’s signal for a faster connection. It does not provide intelligent path selection or traffic directing function. Additionally, it does not physically connect individual network devices in a computer network, it only physically connects to the computer.

The TL-WN881ND is a wireless PCI express adapter that connects a desktop computer to a Wi-Fi network for faster video streaming, online gaming, internet surfing, and internet calls. While the data is transmitted or received through this adapter, TL-WN881ND does not provide intelligent path selection or traffic directing function while doing so. Additionally, it does not physically connect individual network devices in a computer network. It simply speeds up transmission of data to the router for an enhanced experience.

ISSUE:

Whether the network adapters at issue should be classified as switching and routing apparatus under the HTSUSA.

LAW AND ANALYSIS:

Classification under the HTSUS is made in accordance with the General Rules of Interpretation (“GRIs”). GRI 1 provides that the classification of goods shall be determined according to the terms of the headings of the tariff schedule and any relative section or chapter notes. In the event that the goods cannot be classified solely on the basis of GRI 1, and if the headings and legal notes do not otherwise require, the remaining GRIs 2 through 6 may then be applied in order.

There is no dispute that the subject merchandise is properly classified under heading 8517, HTSUS. Accordingly, the question is controlled by GRI 6, which provides as follows:

For legal purposes, the classification of goods in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of those subheadings and any related subheading notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that only subheadings at the same level are comparable. For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter and subchapter notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

The HTSUSA subheadings under consideration are:

|--------------|--|
| 8517 | Telephone sets, including telephones for cellular networks or for other wireless networks; other apparatus for the transmission or reception of voice, images or other data, including apparatus for communication in a wired or wireless network (such as a local or wide area network), other than transmission or reception apparatus of heading 8443, 8525, 8527 or 8528; parts thereof: |
| | Other apparatus for transmission or reception of voice, images or other data, including apparatus for communication in a wired or wireless network (such as a local or wide area network): |
| 8517.62.00 | Machines for the reception, conversion and transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: |
| 8517.62.0020 | Switching and routing apparatus |
| 8517.62.0090 | Other |

As clarified in your reconsideration request, the wireless network adapters are designed to increase the Wi-Fi network speed as it relates to the user’s computer. They do not provide intelligent path selection to decide where the data goes next, nor do they have the requisite Ethernet ports to physically connect individual network devices in a computer network. Wireless network adapters merely enhance transmission of data while making no decisions themselves.

To be classified as a switching or routing apparatus, the device must perform switching or routing itself and not merely rely on an external switching or routing device. A routing device performs the traffic directing function. It is used to forward IP packets in a wide area network (WAN) to a destined client in a local area network (LAN) based on reading the network address information in the data packet, which determines the destination. Then using information in its routing table, or routing policy, it actively directs the packet to the next network on its journey. A routing table file is stored in random access memory (RAM) that contains network information.

A network switch is a multiple-Ethernet-port device that physically connects individual network devices in a computer network, so they can communicate with one another. It is the key component in a business network, connecting multiple network devices such as: PCs, printers, servers and peripherals, and it associates each device's address with one of the physical ports on the switch.

Unlike a router or a switch, these network adapters have no intelligence and make no decisions as to where the data goes next. They do not contain a software or firmware routing table and cannot read the network address information in the data packet to determine the specific destination of the data packet. They do not physically connect individual network devices in a computer network, they only physically connect to the computer

Based on the supplemental information provided and the understanding that the network adapters do not act as a switch or a router within the realm of networking terminology, CBP is now of the view that these devices are properly classified under subheading 8517.62.0090, HTSUSA, which provides for "Telephone sets...; other apparatus for the transmission or reception of voice, images or other data...: Other apparatus for transmission or reception...: Machines for the reception, conversion, and transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: Other."

HOLDING:

For the reasons set forth above, the network adapters (Archer T4U AC1300 wireless network adapter; Archer T9E AC1900 wireless network adapter; TL-WN821N N300 USB network adapter; and TL-WN881ND N300 PCI-E wireless network adapter) are classified in subheading 8517.62.0090, HTSUSA, which provides for "Machines for the reception, conversion & transmission or regeneration of voice, images or other data, including switching and routing apparatus: Other." The column one, general rate of duty is free.

Duty rates are provided for your convenience and subject to change. The text of the most recent HTSUS and the accompanying duty rates are provided at www.usitc.gov.

EFFECT ON OTHER RULINGS:

NY N301141, dated November 5, 2018, is hereby REVOKED.

Overview of This Information Collection

Title: U.S. Customs Declaration.

OMB Number: 1651–0009.

Form Number: CBP Form 3059B.

Current Actions: Extension without change.

Type of Review: Extension (without change).

Affected Public: Individuals.

Abstract: CBP Form 6059B, Customs Declaration, is used as a standard report of the identity and residence of each person arriving in the United States. This form is also used to declare imported articles to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) in accordance with 19 CFR 122.27, 148.12, 148.13, 148.110, 148.111; 31 U.S.C. 5316 and Section 498 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1498).

Section 148.13 of the CBP regulations prescribes the use of the CBP Form 6059B when a written declaration is required of a traveler entering the United States. Generally, written declarations are required from travelers arriving by air or sea. Section 148.12 requires verbal declarations from travelers entering the United States, unless an inspecting officer requires a written declaration on CBP Form 6059B. Generally, verbal declarations are required from travelers arriving by land.

CBP continues to find ways to improve the entry process through the use of mobile technology to ensure it is safe and efficient. To that end, CBP is testing the operational effectiveness of a process which allows travelers to use a mobile app to submit information to CBP prior to arrival. This process, called Mobile Passport Control (MPC) which is a mobile app that allows travelers to self-segment upon arrival into the United States—a process also known as intelligent queuing. The submission of information in advance using MPC allows CBP to direct travelers to the appropriate queue in primary or self-segment directly to secondary if additional inspection is necessary.

The continued testing also helps determine under what circumstances CBP should require a written customs declaration (CBP Form 6059B) and when it is beneficial to admit travelers who make an oral customs declaration during the primary inspection. MPC eliminates the administrative tasks performed by the officer during a traditional inspection and in most cases will eliminate the need for respondents/travelers to fill out a paper declaration. MPC provides a more efficient and secure in person inspection between the CBP Officer and the traveler.

Another electronic process that CBP is testing in lieu of the paper CBP Form 6059B is the Automated Passport Control (APC). This is a CBP program that facilitates the entry process for travelers by providing self-service kiosks in CBP's Primary Inspection area that travelers can use to make their declaration.

Both APC and MPC allow an electronic method for travelers to answer the questions that appear on CBP Form 6059B without filling out a paper form.

DISTRIBUTION OF CONTINUED DUMPING AND SUBSIDY OFFSET TO AFFECTED DOMESTIC PRODUCERS

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: Notice of intent to distribute offset for Fiscal Year 2021.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset Act of 2000, this document is U.S. Customs and Border Protection's (CBP) notice of intent to distribute assessed antidumping or countervailing duties (known as the continued dumping and subsidy offset) for Fiscal Year 2021 in connection with countervailing duty orders, antidumping duty orders, or findings under the Antidumping Act of 1921. This document provides the instructions for affected domestic producers, or anyone alleging eligibility to receive a distribution, to file certifications to claim a distribution in relation to the listed orders or findings.

DATES: Certifications to obtain a continued dumping and subsidy offset under a particular order or finding must be received by July 27, 2021. Any certification received after July 27, 2021 will be summarily denied, making claimants ineligible for the distribution.

ADDRESSES: Certifications and any other correspondence (whether by mail, or an express or courier service) must be addressed to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Revenue Division, Attention: CDSOA Team, 6650 Telecom Drive, Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN 46278.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset Act of 2000 (CDSOA) was enacted on October 28, 2000, as part of the Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2001 (the “Act”). The provisions of the CDSOA are contained in title X (sections 1001–1003) of the Appendix of the Act (H.R. 5426).

The CDSOA amended title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930 by adding a new section 754 (codified at 19 U.S.C. 1675c) in order to provide that assessed duties received pursuant to a countervailing duty order, an antidumping duty order, or a finding under the Antidumping Act of 1921 will be distributed to affected domestic producers for certain qualifying expenditures that these producers incur after the issuance of such an order or finding. The term “affected domestic producer” means any manufacturer, producer, farmer, rancher or worker representative (including associations of such persons) who:

(A) Was a petitioner or interested party in support of a petition with respect to which an antidumping duty order, a finding under the Antidumping Act of 1921, or a countervailing duty order has been entered;

(B) Remains in operation continuing to produce the product covered by the countervailing duty order, the antidumping duty order, or the finding under the Antidumping Act of 1921; and

(C) Has not been acquired by another company or business that is related to a company that opposed the antidumping or countervailing duty investigation that led to the order or finding (e.g., opposed the petition or otherwise presented evidence in opposition to the petition). The distribution that these parties may receive is known as the continued dumping and subsidy offset.

Section 7601(a) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 repealed 19 U.S.C. 1675c. According to section 7701 of the Deficit Reduction Act, the repeal takes effect as if enacted on October 1, 2005. However, section 7601(b) provides that all duties collected on an entry filed before October 1, 2007, must be distributed as if 19 U.S.C. 1675c had not been repealed by section 7601(a). The funds available for distribution were also affected by section 822 of the Claims Resolution Act of 2010 and section 504 of the Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010.

Historically, the antidumping and countervailing duties assessed and received by CBP on CDSOA-subject entries, along with the interest assessed and received on those duties pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1677g, were transferred to the CDSOA Special Account for distribution. 66 FR 48546, Sept. 21, 2001; see also 19 CFR 159.64(e). Other types of interest, including delinquency interest that accrued pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1505(d), equitable interest under common law, and interest under 19 U.S.C. 580, were not subject to distribution. Id.

Section 605 of the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act of 2015 (TFTEA) (Pub. L. 114–125, February 24, 2016; codified as 19 U.S.C. 4401), provided new authority for CBP to deposit into the CDSOA Special Account for distribution delinquency interest that accrued pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1505(d), equitable interest under common law, and interest under 19 U.S.C. 580 for all surety payments received by CBP on or after October 1, 2014, on CDSOA subject entries, as well as post-judgment interest received by CBP on those surety payments. See 28 U.S.C. 1961.

On February 10, 2020, President Trump ordered the sequester of non-exempt budgetary resources for Fiscal Year 2021 pursuant to section 251A of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended (85 FR 8129, February 13, 2020). To implement this sequester during Fiscal Year 2021, the calculation of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) requires a reduction of 5.7 percent of the assessed duties and interest received in the CDSOA Special Account (account number 015–12–5688). OMB has concluded that any amounts sequestered in the CDSOA Special Account during Fiscal Year 2021 will become available in the subsequent fiscal year. See 2 U.S.C. 906(k)(6). As a result, CBP intends to include the funds that are temporarily reduced via sequester during Fiscal Year 2021 in the continued dumping and subsidy offset for Fiscal Year 2021, which will be distributed not later than 60 days after the first day of Fiscal Year 2022 in accordance with 19 U.S.C. 1675c(c). In other words, the continued dumping and subsidy offset that affected domestic producers receive for Fiscal Year 2021 will include the funds that were temporarily sequestered during Fiscal Year 2021.

Because of the statutory constraints in the assessments of anti-dumping and countervailing duties, as well as the additional time involved when the Government must initiate litigation to collect delinquent antidumping and countervailing duties, the CDSOA distribution process will be continued for an undetermined period. Consequently, the full impact of the CDSOA repeal on amounts available for distribution has been delayed for several years. It should also be noted that amounts distributed may be subject to recovery as a result of reliquidations, court actions, administrative errors, and other reasons.

List of Orders or Findings and Affected Domestic Producers

It is the responsibility of the U.S. International Trade Commission (USITC) to ascertain and timely forward to CBP a list of the affected domestic producers that are potentially eligible to receive an offset in connection with an order or finding. In this regard, it is noted that the USITC has supplied CBP with the list of individual antidumping and countervailing duty cases, and the affected domestic producers associated with each case who are potentially eligible to receive an offset. This list appears at the end of this document.

A significant amount of litigation has challenged various provisions of the CDSOA, including the definition of the term “affected domestic producer.” In two decisions, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (Federal Circuit) upheld the constitutionality of the support requirement contained in the CDSOA. Specifically, in SKF USA Inc. v. United States Customs & Border Prot., 556 F.3d 1337 (Fed. Cir. 2009), the Federal Circuit held that the CDSOA’s support requirement did not violate either the First or Fifth Amendment. The Supreme Court of the United States denied plaintiff’s petition for certiorari, SKF USA, Inc. v. United States Customs & Border Prot., 560 U.S. 903 (2010). Similarly, in PS Chez Sidney, L.L.C. v. United States, 409 Fed. Appx. 327 (Fed. Cir. 2010), the Federal Circuit summarily reversed the U.S. Court of International Trade’s judgment that the support requirement was unconstitutional, allowing only plaintiff’s non-constitutional claims to go forward. See PS Chez Sidney, L.L.C. v. United States, 684 F.3d 1374 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Furthermore, in two cases interpreting the CDSOA’s language, the Federal Circuit concluded that a producer who never indicates support for a dumping petition by letter or through questionnaire response, despite the act of otherwise filling out a questionnaire, cannot be an affected domestic producer. Ashley Furniture Indus., Inc. et al. v. United States, 734 F.3d 1306 (Fed. Cir. 2013), cert. denied, 135 S. Ct. 72 (2014); Giorgio Foods, Inc. v. United States et al., 785 F.3d 595 (Fed. Cir. 2015).

Domestic producers who are not on the USITC list but believe they nonetheless are eligible for a CDSOA distribution under one or more antidumping and/or countervailing duty cases are required, as are all potential claimants that expressly appear on the list, to properly file their certification(s) within 60 days after this notice is published. Such domestic producers must allege all other bases for eligibility in their certification(s). CBP will evaluate the merits of such claims in accordance with the relevant statutes, regulations, and decisions. Certifications that are not timely filed within the requisite 60 days and/or that fail to sufficiently establish a basis for eligibility will be summarily denied. Additionally, CBP may not make a final decision regarding a claimant's eligibility to receive funds until certain legal issues which may affect that claimant's eligibility are resolved. In these instances, CBP may withhold an amount of funds corresponding to the claimant's alleged pro rata share of funds from distribution pending the resolution of those legal issues.

It should also be noted that the Federal Circuit ruled in Canadian Lumber Trade Alliance v. United States, 517 F.3d 1319 (Fed. Cir. 2008), cert. denied sub nom. United States Steel v. Canadian Lumber Trade Alliance, 129 S. Ct. 344 (2008), that CBP was not authorized to distribute such antidumping and countervailing duties to the extent they were derived from goods from countries that are parties to the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). Due to this decision, CBP does not list cases related to NAFTA on the Preliminary Amounts Available report, and no distributions will be issued on these cases.

Regulations Implementing the CDSOA

It is noted that CBP published Treasury Decision (T.D.) 01–68 (Distribution of Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset to Affected Domestic Producers) in the Federal Register (66 FR 48546) on September 21, 2001, which was effective as of that date, in order to implement the CDSOA. The final rule added a new subpart F to part 159 of title 19, Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR part 159, subpart F (sections 159.61–159.64)). More specific guidance regarding the filing of certifications is provided in this notice in order to aid affected domestic producers and other domestic producers alleging eligibility (“claimants” or “domestic producers”).

Notice of Intent To Distribute Offset

This document announces that CBP intends to distribute to affected domestic producers the assessed antidumping or countervailing duties, section 1677g interest, and interest provided for in 19 U.S.C. 4401 that are available for distribution in Fiscal Year 2021 in connection with those antidumping duty orders or findings or countervailing duty orders that are listed in this document. All distributions will be issued by paper check to the address provided by the claimants. Section 159.62(a) of title 19, Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR 159.62(a)) provides that CBP will publish such a notice of intention to distribute at least 90 calendar days before the end of a fiscal year. Failure to publish the notice at least 90 calendar days before the end of the fiscal year will not affect an affected domestic producer's obligation to file a timely certification within 60 days after the notice is published. See Dixon Ticonderoga v. United States, 468 F.3d 1353, 1354 (Fed. Cir. 2006).

Certifications; Submission and Content

To obtain a distribution of the offset under a given order or finding (including any distribution under 19 U.S.C. 4401), an affected domestic producer (and anyone alleging eligibility to receive a distribution) must submit a certification for each order or finding under which a distribution is sought, to CBP, indicating its desire to receive a distribution. To be eligible to obtain a distribution, certifications must be received by CBP no later than 60 calendar days after the date of publication of this notice of intent to distribute in the Federal Register. All certifications not received by the 60th day will not be eligible to receive a distribution.

As required by 19 CFR 159.62(b), this notice provides the case name and number of the order or finding concerned, as well as the specific instructions for filing a certification under section 159.63 to claim a distribution. Section 159.62(b) also provides that the dollar amounts subject to distribution that are contained in the Special Account for each listed order or finding are to appear in this notice. However, these dollar amounts were not available in time for inclusion in this publication. The preliminary amounts will be posted on the CBP website (<https://www.cbp.gov>). However, the final amounts available for disbursement may be higher or lower than the preliminary amounts.

CBP will provide general information to claimants regarding the preparation of certification(s). However, it remains the sole responsibility of the domestic producer to ensure that the certification is correct, complete, and accurate so as to demonstrate the eligibility of the domestic producer for the distribution requested. Failure to ensure that the certification is correct, complete, and accurate as provided in this notice will result in the domestic producer not receiving a distribution and/or a demand for the return of funds.

Specifically, to obtain a distribution of the offset under a given order or finding (including any distribution under 19 U.S.C. 4401), each potential claimant must timely submit a certification containing the required information detailed below as to the eligibility of the domestic producer (or anyone alleging eligibility) to receive the requested distribution and the total amount of the distribution that the domestic producer is claiming. Certifications should be submitted to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Revenue Division, Attention: CD-SOA Team, 6650 Telecom Drive, Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN, 46278. The certification must enumerate the qualifying expenditures incurred by the domestic producer since the issuance of an order or finding and it must demonstrate that the domestic producer is eligible to receive a distribution as an affected domestic producer or allege another basis for eligibility. Any false statements made in connection with certifications submitted to CBP may give rise to liability under the False Claims Act (see 31 U.S.C. 3729–3733) and/or to criminal prosecution.

A successor to a company that was an affected domestic producer at the time of acquisition should consult 19 CFR 159.61(b)(1)(i). Any company that files a certification claiming to be the successor company to an affected domestic producer will be deemed to have consented to joint and several liability for the return of any overpayments arising under 19 CFR 159.64(b)(3) that were previously paid to the predecessor. CBP may require the successor company to provide documents to support its eligibility to receive a distribution as set out in 19 CFR 159.63(d). Additionally, any individual or company who purchases any portion of the operating assets of an affected domestic producer, a successor to an affected domestic producer, or an entity that otherwise previously received distributions may be jointly and severally liable for the return of any overpayments arising under 19 CFR 159.64(b)(3) that were previously paid to the entity from which the operating assets were purchased or its predecessor, regardless of whether the purchasing individual or company is deemed a successor company for purposes of receiving distributions.

A member company (or its successor) of an association that appears on the list of affected domestic producers in this notice, where the member company itself does not appear on this list, should consult 19 CFR 159.61(b)(1)(ii). Specifically, for a certification under 19 CFR 159.61(b)(1)(ii), the claimant must name the association of which it is a member, specifically establish that it was a member of the association at the time the association filed the petition with the USITC, and establish that the claimant is a current member of the association.

In order to promote accurate filings and more efficiently process the distributions, we offer the following guidance:

- If claimants are members of an association but the association does not file on their behalf, the association will need to provide its members with a statement that contains notarized company-specific information including dates of membership and an original signature from an authorized representative of the association.
- An association filing a certification on behalf of a member must also provide a power of attorney or other evidence of legal authorization from each of the domestic producers it is representing.
- Any association filing a certification on behalf of a member is responsible for verifying the legal sufficiency and accuracy of the member's financial records, which support the claim, and is responsible for that certification. As such, an association filing a certification on behalf of a member is jointly and severally liable with the member for repayment of any claim found to have been paid or overpaid in error.

The association may file a certification in its own right to claim an offset for that order or finding, but its qualifying expenditures would be limited to those expenditures that the association itself has incurred after the date of the order or finding in connection with the particular case.

As provided in 19 CFR 159.63(a), certifications to obtain a distribution of an offset (including any distribution under 19 U.S.C. 4401) must be received by CBP no later than 60 calendar days after the date of publication of the notice of intent in the Federal Register. All certifications received after the 60-day deadline will be summarily denied, making claimants ineligible for the distribution regardless of whether or not they appeared on the USITC list.

A list of all certifications received will be published on the CBP website (<https://www.cbp.gov>) shortly after the receipt deadline. This publication will not confirm acceptance or validity of the certification, but merely receipt of the certification. Due to the high volume of certifications, CBP is unable to respond to individual telephone or written inquiries regarding the status of a certification appearing on the list.

While there is no required format for a certification, CBP has developed a standard certification form to aid claimants in filing certifications. The certification form is available at <https://www.pay.gov> under the Public Form Name "Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset Act of 2000 Certification" (CBP Form Number 7401) or by directing a web browser to <https://www.pay.gov/public/form/start/8776895/>. The certification form can be submitted electronically through <https://www.pay.gov> or by mail. All certifications not submitted electronically must include original signatures.

Regardless of the format for a certification, per 19 CFR 159.63(b), the certification must contain the following information:

- (1) The date of this Federal Register notice;
- (2) The Department of Commerce antidumping or countervailing duty case number (for example, A-331-802);
- (3) The case name (product/country);
- (4) The name of the domestic producer and any name qualifier, if applicable (for example, any other name under which the domestic producer does business or is also known);
- (5) The mailing address of the domestic producer (if a post office box, the physical street address must also appear) including, if applicable, a specific room number or department;
- (6) The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) number (with suffix) of the domestic producer, employer identification number, or social security number, as applicable;
- (7) The specific business organization of the domestic producer (corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship);
- (8) The name(s) of any individual(s) designated by the domestic producer as the contact person(s) concerning the certification, together with the phone number(s), mailing address, and, if available, facsimile transmission number(s) and electronic mail (email) address(es) for the person(s). Correspondence from CBP may be directed to the designated contact(s) by either mail or phone or both;
- (9) The total dollar amount claimed;
- (10) The dollar amount claimed by category, as described in the section below entitled “Amount Claimed for Distribution”;
- (11) A statement of eligibility, as described in the section below entitled “Eligibility to Receive Distribution”; and
- (12) For certifications not submitted electronically through <https://www.pay.gov>, an original signature by an individual legally authorized to bind the producer.

Qualifying Expenditures That May Be Claimed for Distribution

Qualifying expenditures that may be offset under the CDSOA encompass those expenditures incurred by the domestic producer after issuance of an antidumping duty order or finding or a countervailing duty order (including expenditures incurred on the date of the order’s issuance), and prior to its termination, provided that such expenditures fall within certain categories. See 19 CFR 159.61(c). The CDSOA repeal language parallels the termination of an order or finding. Therefore, for duty orders or findings that have not been previously revoked, expenses must be incurred before October 1, 2007, to be eligible for offset. For duty orders or findings that have been revoked, expenses must be incurred before the effective date of the revocation to be eligible for offset. For example, assume for case A-331-802 Certain Frozen Warm-Water Shrimp and Prawns from Ecuador, that the order date is February 1, 2005, and that the revocation effective date is August 15, 2007. In this case, eligible expenditures would have to be incurred on or after February 1, 2005, up to and including August 14, 2007; expenditures incurred on or after August 15, 2007 cannot be included as eligible qualifying expenditures for A-331-802.

For the convenience and ease of the domestic producers, CBP is providing guidance on what the agency takes into consideration when making a calculation for each of the following categories:

(1) Manufacturing facilities (Any facility used for the transformation of raw material into a finished product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(2) Equipment (Goods that are used in a business environment to aid in the manufacturing of a product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(3) Research and development (Seeking knowledge and determining the best techniques for production of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(4) Personnel training (Teaching of specific useful skills to personnel, that will improve performance in the production process of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(5) Acquisition of technology (Acquisition of applied scientific knowledge and materials to achieve an objective in the production process of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(6) Health care benefits for employees paid for by the employer (Health care benefits paid to employees who are producing the specific product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(7) Pension benefits for employees paid for by the employer (Pension benefits paid to employees who are producing the specific product that is the subject of the related order or finding);

(8) Environmental equipment, training, or technology (Equipment, training, or technology used in the production of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding, that will assist in preventing potentially harmful factors from affecting the environment);

(9) Acquisition of raw materials and other inputs (Purchase of unprocessed materials or other inputs needed for the production of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding); and

(10) Working capital or other funds needed to maintain production (Assets of a business that can be applied to its production of the product that is the subject of the related order or finding).

Amount Claimed for Distribution

In calculating the amount of the distribution being claimed as an offset, the certification must indicate:

(1) The total amount of any qualifying expenditures previously certified by the domestic producer, and the amount certified by category;

(2) The total amount of those expenditures which have been the subject of any prior distribution for the order or finding being certified under 19 U.S.C. 1675c; and

(3) The net amount for new and remaining qualifying expenditures being claimed in the current certification (the total amount previously certified as noted in item “(1)” above minus the total amount that was the subject of any prior distribution as noted in item “(2)” above). In accordance with 19 CFR 159.63(b)(2)(i)–(iii), CBP will deduct the amount of any prior distribution from the producer’s claimed amount for that case. Total amounts disbursed by CBP under the CDSOA for some prior Fiscal Years are available on the CBP website.

Additionally, under 19 CFR 159.61(c), these qualifying expenditures must be related to the production of the same product that is the subject of the order or finding, with the exception of expenses incurred by associations which must be related to a specific case. Any false statements made to CBP concerning the amount of distribution being claimed as an offset may give rise to liability under the False Claims Act (see 31 U.S.C. 3729–3733) and/or to criminal prosecution.

Eligibility To Receive Distribution

As noted, the certification must contain a statement that the domestic producer desires to receive a distribution and is eligible to receive the distribution as an affected domestic producer or on another legal basis. Also, the domestic producer must affirm that the net amount certified for distribution does not encompass any qualifying expenditures for which distribution has previously been made (19 CFR 159.63(b)(3)(i)). Any false statements made in connection with certifications submitted to CBP may give rise to liability under the False Claims Act (see 31 U.S.C. 3729–3733) and/or to criminal prosecution.

Furthermore, under 19 CFR 159.63(b)(3)(ii), where a domestic producer files a separate certification for more than one order or finding using the same qualifying expenditures as the basis for distribution in each case, each certification must list all the other orders or findings where the producer is claiming the same qualifying expenditures.

Moreover, as required by 19 U.S.C. 1675c(b)(1) and 19 CFR 159.63(b)(3)(iii), the certification must include information as to whether the domestic producer remains in operation at the time the certifications are filed and continues to produce the product covered by the particular order or finding under which the distribution is sought. If a domestic producer is no longer in operation, or no longer produces the product covered by the order or finding, the producer will not be considered an affected domestic producer entitled to receive a distribution.

In addition, as required by 19 U.S.C. 1675c(b)(5) and 19 CFR 159.63(b)(3)(iii), the domestic producer must state whether it has been acquired by a company that opposed the investigation or was acquired by a business related to a company that opposed the investigation. If a domestic producer has been so acquired, the producer will not be considered an affected domestic producer entitled to receive a distribution. However, CBP may not make a final decision regarding a claimant's eligibility to receive funds until certain legal issues which may affect that claimant's eligibility are resolved. In these instances, CBP may withhold an amount of funds corresponding to the claimant's alleged pro rata share of funds from distribution pending the resolution of those legal issues.

The certification must be executed and dated by a party legally authorized to bind the domestic producer and it must state that the information contained in the certification is true and accurate to the best of the certifier's knowledge and belief under penalty of law, and that the domestic producer has records to support the qualifying expenditures being claimed (see section below entitled "Verification of Certification"). Moreover as provided in 19 CFR 159.64(b)(3), all overpayments to affected domestic producers are recoverable by CBP, and CBP reserves the right to use all available collection tools to recover overpayments, including but not limited to garnishments, court orders, administrative offset, enrollment in the Treasury Offset Program, and/or offset of tax refund payments. Overpayments may occur for a variety of reasons, including but not limited to: Reliquidations, court actions, settlements, insufficient verification of a certification in response to an inquiry from CBP, and administrative errors. With diminished amounts available over time, the likelihood that these events will require the recovery of funds previously distributed will increase. As a result, domestic producers who receive distributions under the CDSOA may wish to set aside any funds received in case it is subsequently determined that an overpayment has occurred. CBP considers the submission of a certification and the negotiation of any distribution checks received as acknowledgements and acceptance of the claimant's obligation to return those funds upon demand.

Review and Correction of Certification

A certification that is submitted in response to this notice of intent to distribute and received within 60 calendar days after the date of publication of the notice in the Federal Register may, at CBP's sole discretion, be subject to review before acceptance to ensure that all informational requirements are complied with and that any amounts set forth in the certification for qualifying expenditures, including the amount claimed for distribution, appear to be correct. A certification that is found to be materially incorrect or incomplete will be returned to the domestic producer within 15 business days after the close of the 60 calendar-day filing period, as provided in 19 CFR 159.63(c). In making this determination, CBP will not speculate as to the reason for the error (e.g., intentional, typographical, etc.). CBP must receive a corrected certification from the domestic producer and/or an association filing on behalf of an association member within 10 business days from the date of the original denial letter. Failure to receive a corrected certification within 10 business days will result in denial of the certification at issue. It is the sole responsibility of the domestic producer to ensure that the certification is correct, complete, and accurate so as to demonstrate the eligibility of the domestic producer to the distribution requested. Failure to ensure that the certification is correct, complete, and accurate will result in the domestic producer not receiving a distribution and/or a demand for the return of funds.

Verification of Certification

Certifications are subject to CBP's verification. The burden remains on each claimant to fully substantiate all elements of its certification. As such, claimants may be required to provide copies of additional records for further review by CBP. Therefore, parties are required to maintain, and be prepared to produce, records adequately supporting their claims for a period of five years after the filing of the certification (19 CFR 159.63(d)). The records must demonstrate that each qualifying expenditure enumerated in the certification was actually incurred, and they must support how the qualifying expenditures are determined to be related to the production of the product covered by the order or finding. Although CBP will accept comments and information from the public and other domestic producers, CBP retains complete discretion regarding the initiation and conduct of investigations stemming from such information. In the event that a distribution is made to a domestic producer from whom CBP later seeks verification of the certification and sufficient supporting documentation is not provided as determined by CBP, then the amounts paid to the affected domestic producer are recoverable by CBP as an overpayment. CBP reserves the right to use all available collection tools to recover overpayments, including but not limited to garnishments, court orders, administrative offset, enrollment in the Treasury Offset Program, and/or offset of tax refund payments. CBP considers the submission of a certification and the negotiation of any distribution checks received as acknowledgements and acceptance of the claimant's obligation to return those funds upon demand. Additionally, the submission of false statements, documents, or records in connection with a certification or verification of a certification may give rise to liability under the False Claims Act (see 31 U.S.C. 3729–3733) and/or to criminal prosecution.

Disclosure of Information in Certifications; Acceptance by Producer

The name of the claimant, the total dollar amount claimed by the party on the certification, as well as the total dollar amount that CBP actually disburses to that affected domestic producer as an offset, will be available for disclosure to the public, as specified in 19 CFR 159.63(e). To this extent, the submission of the certification is construed as an understanding and acceptance on the part of the domestic producer that this information will be disclosed to the public and a waiver of any right to privacy or non-disclosure. Additionally, a statement in a certification that this information is proprietary and exempt from disclosure may result in CBP's rejection of the certification.

List of Orders or Findings and Related Domestic Producers

The list of individual antidumping duty orders or findings and countervailing duty orders is set forth below together with the affected domestic producers associated with each order or finding who are potentially eligible to receive an offset. Those domestic producers not on the list must allege another basis for eligibility in their certification. Appearance of a domestic producer on the list is not a guarantee of distribution.

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

SC JOHNSON & SON INCORPORATED, Plaintiff-Appellant v. UNITED STATES, Defendant-Appellee

Appeal No. 2020–1476

Appeal from the United States Court of International Trade in No. 1:14-cv-00184-JCG, Judge Jennifer Choe-Groves.

Decided: June 2, 2021

MICHAEL EDWARD ROLL, Roll & Harris LLP, Los Angeles, CA, argued for plaintiff-appellant. Also represented by BRETT HARRIS, Washington, DC.

MONICA PERRETTE TRIANA, International Trade Field Office, United States Department of Justice, New York, NY, argued for defendant-appellee. Also represented by JEFFREY B. CLARK, JEANNE DAVIDSON, AIMEE LEE, JUSTIN REINHART MILLER.

Before MOORE, Chief Judge^{*}, DYK and O'MALLEY, Circuit Judges.

DYK, Circuit Judge.

S.C. Johnson appeals the Court of International Trade's ("Trade Court") determination that Ziploc® brand reclosable sandwich bags are classified under Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS") heading 3923. We affirm.

BACKGROUND

On May 15, 2013, S.C. Johnson imported 1,512 cases of Ziploc® brand reclosable sandwich bags from Thailand. The bags have a single zipper closure and measure six and one-half inches by five and seven-eighths inches. They are manufactured from polyethylene resin pellets and are tested to ensure compatibility with food contact.

Upon entry, Customs classified the sandwich bags under HTSUS subheading 3923.21.00, covering "[a]rticles for the conveyance or packing of goods, of plastics; stoppers, lids, caps and other closures, of plastics: Sacks and bags (including cones): Of polymers of ethylene." On June 26, 2014, S.C. Johnson filed a protest, which was deemed denied.

S.C. Johnson then initiated this action before the Trade Court, contending that the sandwich bags should have been classified under HTSUS subheading 3924.90.56, covering "[t]ableware, kitchenware, other household articles and hygienic or toilet articles, of plastics:

^{*} Chief Judge Moore assumed the position of Chief Judge on May 22, 2021.

Other: Other.” S.C. Johnson additionally argued that, because the merchandise should have been classified under subheading 3924.90.56 and was imported from Thailand, the bags were eligible for duty-free treatment under the Generalized System of Preferences.

The parties filed cross-motions for summary judgment before the Trade Court. The Trade Court determined “HTSUS Heading 3923 is a principal use provision and encompasses goods of plastic used to carry or transport other goods of any kind.” J.A. 34. The Trade Court also concluded that “HTSUS Heading 3924 is an eo nomine provision that encompasses plastic goods of or relating to the house or household.” Id. at 37. The Trade Court declined to determine on summary judgment whether the sandwich bags were prima facie classifiable under either heading.

After a bench trial on the papers, the Trade Court conducted a principal use analysis using the Carborundum factors to determine whether the sandwich bags were prima facie classifiable under HTSUS heading 3923.¹ The court concluded that “the majority of the Carborundum factors support[ed] classification under HTSUS Heading 3923” and that “the subject merchandise [we]re prima facie classifiable under” that heading. J.A. 21.

The Trade Court also determined that the sandwich bags were prima facie classifiable under HTSUS heading 3924, noting that “[t]he sandwich bags are designed in a manner consistent with household food storage” and that “S.C. Johnson’s internal study indicate[d] that the sandwich bags can be found in a household.” J.A. 22.

Because the sandwich bags were prima facie classifiable under both headings at issue, the court applied General Rule of Interpretation (“GRI”) 3, which dictates that goods should be classified under the heading that provides the most specific description.² The court concluded that the sandwich bags were properly classified under HTSUS

¹ The Carborundum factors are used to determine whether merchandise is commercially fungible with the particular class or kind of merchandise that falls under a principal use provision. See Aromont USA, Inc. v. United States, 671 F.3d 1310, 1312–13 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (citing United States v. Carborundum, 536 F.2d 373, 377 (CCPA 1976)). Under Carborundum, courts look to (1) use in the same manner as merchandise which defines the class; (2) the general physical characteristics of the merchandise; (3) the economic practicality of so using the import; (4) the expectation of the ultimate purchasers; (5) the channels of trade in which the merchandise moves; (6) the environment of the sale, such as accompanying accessories and the manner in which the merchandise is advertised and displayed; and (7) the recognition in the trade of this use. Id. at 1313.

² The GRIs, along with the Additional U.S. Rules of Interpretation (“ARIs”), “govern the proper classification of all merchandise and are applied in numerical order.” Carl Zeiss, Inc. v. United States, 195 F.3d 1375, 1379 (Fed. Cir. 1999). GRI 3 provides in relevant part that:

When . . . goods are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings . . . the heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description.

GRI 3(a).

heading 3923 because that heading “has requirements that are more difficult to satisfy and describe the article with a greater degree of accuracy and certainty.” J.A. 24. Because the products were classified under HTSUS heading 3923, the Trade Court did not reach whether the sandwich bags were eligible for duty-free treatment under the Generalized System of Preferences.

S.C. Johnson appealed. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1295(a)(5).

DISCUSSION

The classification of merchandise “involves two underlying steps: (1) determining the proper meaning of the tariff provisions, which is a question of law; and (2) determining which heading the particular merchandise falls within, which is a question of fact.” Deckers Corp. v. United States, 532 F.3d 1312, 1314–15 (Fed. Cir. 2008). “We review questions of law de novo, including the interpretation of the terms of the HTSUS, whereas factual findings of the Court of International Trade are reviewed for clear error.” Id. at 1315. The issues here are legal issues—the interpretation of HTSUS headings.

I

First, we address S.C. Johnson’s argument that the Trade Court erred in determining that the sandwich bags are classifiable under HTSUS heading 3923. That heading provides for classification of [a]rticles for the conveyance or packing of goods, of plastics; stoppers, lids, caps and other closures, of plastics.

HTSUS heading 3923.

The Trade Court concluded that HTSUS heading 3923 “encompasses goods of plastic used to carry or to transport other goods of any kind.” J.A. 34. S.C. Johnson argues that HTSUS heading 3923 should instead apply only to “articles used for commercial purposes,” Appellant’s Br. 46, that is, the transportation of goods between sellers and their suppliers rather than the transportation of goods by customers. We disagree.

In support of its interpretation, S.C. Johnson urges that HTSUS heading 3923 should be construed to have the same scope as a predecessor tariff provision, Tariff Schedules of the United States (“TSUS”) item 772.20, which encompassed

[c]ontainers, of rubber or plastics, with or without their closures, chiefly used for the packing, transporting, or marketing of merchandise.

TSUS item 772.20.

Because of the reference to “merchandise,” TSUS item 772.20 was construed as limited to the packing, transport, or marketing of goods in the stream of commerce. See Imperial Packaging Corp. v. United States, 535 F. Supp. 688, 689–90 (Ct. Int’l Trade 1981) (concluding that plastic shopping bags used by customers to carry merchandise did not fall under TSUS 772.20 because the heading was “not intended to encompass merchandise bags which retail stores furnish to their customers for carrying purchases home”).

None of the cases on which S.C. Johnson relies was decided by this court or its predecessor. In any event, cases limiting TSUS item 772.20 to the packing or transportation of commercial goods do not apply to the “differing language of the more recently enacted HTSUS.” Mitsubishi Int’l Corp. v. United States, 182 F.3d 884, 886 (Fed. Cir. 1999); see also Bausch & Lomb, Inc. v. United States, 148 F.3d 1363, 1367 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (addressing the differences between an HTSUS sub-heading and TSUS item and stating that “[w]e can safely assume that Congress changed the language for a reason”). The language of HTSUS heading 3923 differs from TSUS item 772.20 item in two material respects. First, HTSUS heading 3923 changed “merchandise” to “goods.” As the government correctly points out, the term “goods” is broader than “merchandise” and includes “both personal property as well as items of trade.” Appellee’s Br. 21; see also Good, Webster’s II New College Dictionary 480 (1999) (defining “goods” as “a. Commodities: wares . . . b. Portable personal property”).

Second, the provision was changed to apply to items for “conveyance or packing,” HTSUS heading 3923, rather than “packing, transporting, or marketing,” TSUS item 772.20. Thus, HTSUS 3923 applies more broadly to articles for the “conveyance or packing of goods,” and is not limited to transportation between sellers and their suppliers.

The materiality of this difference in language is confirmed by a comparison of the Summary of Trade and Tariff Information for TSUS item 772.20 and the current Explanatory Notes for HTSUS heading 3923. The Summary of Trade and Tariff Information states that [b]ags and similar nonrigid articles which are not covered here under TSUS item 772.20 include disposable household bags such as garbage and garden bags, sandwich bags, and food bags.

Summary of Trade and Tariff Information, TSUS item 772.20, 772.85, and 772.86 (April 1981), U.S. International Trade Commission. By contrast, the Explanatory Notes for HTSUS Heading 3923 state that the heading covers

[c]ontainers such as boxes, cases, crates, sacks and bags (including cones and refuse sacks), casks, cans, carboys, bottles, and flasks.

J.A. 14 (citing EN 39.23(a), (c) (2012) (emphasis added)). Thus, while TSUS item 772.20 did not cover disposable household bags, the modified language of HTSUS heading 3923 does.

Next, S.C. Johnson contends that the Trade Court's determination as to the scope of HTSUS heading 3923 is inconsistent with Customs rulings finding that heading 3923 should be limited to "articles used to package or convey bulk or commercial merchandise." Appellant's Br. 43–44 (emphasis omitted); see also HQ H026225 (June 4, 2009) (stating that HTSUS heading 3923 "provides for cases and containers used for shipping purposes" and therefore the heading "provides for cases and containers of bulk goods and commercial goods, not personal items"). These Customs rulings are not entitled to Chevron deference and are not persuasive. See United States v. Mead Corp., 533 U.S. 218, 221 (2001) (holding that a Customs classification ruling "has no claim to judicial deference under Chevron" but can "claim respect according to its persuasiveness"). Nor are they consistent. As the government correctly points out, Customs previously classified Dow Chemical's "polyethylene food bags with minigrip closures" under HTSUS subheading 3923.21.00, the same provision at issue in this case. HQ 086579 (March 7, 1990).

Finally, S.C. Johnson contends that our prior decision in SGI, Inc. v. United States, 122 F.3d 1468 (Fed. Cir. 1997), "reject[ed] classification of household food storage articles as 'articles for the conveyance or packing of goods' within HTSUS heading 3923." Appellant's Br. 45. In SGI, this court summarily ruled that soft-sided vinyl insulated coolers for transporting food or beverages did not fall within the scope of HTSUS heading 3923 because heading 3923 does not specifically mention "foodstuffs." SGI, 122 F.3d at 1473 n.1. S.C. Johnson appears to interpret this statement as a determination that HTSUS 3923 does not apply to personal food transportation or storage. However, there is nothing in HTSUS heading 3923 that excludes containers for transporting foodstuffs. As the explanatory notes to HTSUS heading 3923 illustrate, the heading includes "boxes, cases, crates, sacks and bags (including cones and refuse sacks), casks, cans, carboys, bottles and flasks" and "[c]ups without handles having the character of containers used for the packing or conveyance of certain foodstuffs." EN 39.23. Thus, HTSUS heading 3923 encompasses containers for the packing or transport of foodstuffs. Whatever the meaning of SGI, it does not help S.C. Johnson here.³

S.C. Johnson does not appear to otherwise challenge that the sandwich bags are used for the packing or conveyance of goods. Nor could it. The record overwhelmingly shows that the sandwich bags are used for the transportation of food that is consumed away from home. As S.C. Johnson's witness, Amy Bigna, explained, the bags are "predominantly used for packing lunches, whether it be for someone to take it to work or to send it to school with your child." J.A. 735.

II

Next, we address S.C. Johnson's challenge to the Trade Court's determination that HTSUS heading 3924 is an eo nomine provision rather than a use provision. If HTSUS heading 3924 is a use provision, then both HTSUS headings at issue would be use provisions, and under ARI 1(a), the "principal use" would govern classification of the sandwich bags. S.C. Johnson contends that the principal use of the bags is household food storage. We agree with the Trade Court that HTSUS heading 3924 is an eo nomine provision. As the Trade Court determined, the key inquiry under the terms of the heading is where the articles at issue are located, rather than how they are used. This heading provides in pertinent part for the classification of [t]ableware, kitchenware, other household articles and hygienic or toilet articles, of plastics.

HTSUS Heading 3924.

There are two types of HTSUS headings, eo nomine and use provisions. "An eo nomine provision 'describes an article by a specific name,' whereas a use provision describes articles according to their principal or actual use." Schlumberger Tech. Corp. v. United States, 845 F.3d 1158, 1164 (Fed. Cir. 2017) (quoting Aromont, 671 F.3d at 1312). On its face heading 3924 does not define its coverage by reference to the "use" of the goods in question. While a use provision need not expressly use the words "used for," see StoreWALL, LLC v. United States, 644 F.3d 1358, 1365 (Fed. Cir. 2011) (Dyk, J., concurring), "a use limitation should not be read into an eo nomine provision unless the name itself inherently suggests a type of use," Carl Zeiss, Inc. v. United States, 195 F.3d 1375, 1379 (Fed. Cir. 1999).

³ S.C. Johnson also relies on the Explanatory Notes for HTSUS heading 3923. The Explanatory Notes exclude household articles "which are used as tableware or toilet articles and do not have the character of containers for the packing or conveyance of goods, whether or not sometimes used for such purposes" from HTSUS heading 3923. EN 39.23. Thus, the Explanatory Notes make clear that this exclusion does not generally apply to household articles having "the character of containers for the packing or conveyance of goods," such as sandwich bags, regardless of whether the articles are located in the household.

In determining whether a provision inherently suggests a type of use, we have previously looked to dictionary definitions of heading terms. In Minnetonka Brands, Inc. v. United States, the Trade Court concluded that HTSUS heading 9503, covering “Other toys,” was a principal use provision because dictionary definitions suggested that toys are “designed and used for amusement, diversion or play, rather than practicality.” 110 F. Supp. 2d 1020, 1026 (Ct. Int’l Trade 2000). The Trade Court’s reasoning in Minnetonka was adopted by this court in Processed Plastics Co. v. United States, 473 F.3d 1164, 1170 (Fed. Cir. 2006) (“We agree with the standard adopted in Minnetonka to determine whether merchandise should be classified as a toy.”).

Other cases have determined that generic terms preceded by an adjective suggesting a manner of use can constitute principal use provisions. See, e.g., Stewart-Warner Corp. v. United States, 748 F.2d 663, 667 (Fed. Cir. 1984) (explaining that the TSUS term encompassing “bicycle speedometers” was “a term ‘controlled by use’ . . . because the noun ‘bicycle’ acts as an adjective modifying ‘speedometer’ in a way that implies use of the speedometer on a bicycle”).

Here, the Trade Court noted that “[h]ousehold’ is defined as ‘the maintaining of a house,’ ‘household goods and chattels,’ ‘a domestic establishment,’ or ‘of or relating to a household.’” J.A. 36 (quoting Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1096 (1993)); see also id. at 11. The court also determined that “[a]rticle’ is defined as an ‘individual thing or element of a class; a particular object or item.’” Id. at 36 (quoting The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language 101 (4th ed. 2000)); see also id. at 11. As the Trade Court concluded, these definitions do not suggest a specific type of use. Further, none of the terms in HTSUS heading 3924 acts as an adjective that suggests a type of use rather than a location where the objects can be found.

S.C. Johnson argues that “an unbroken line of cases” establishes that “household article” constitutes a use provision. Appellant’s Br. 21. In support, S.C. Johnson relies on several cases in which this court or its predecessor determined that the different tariff term “household utensils” used in paragraph 339 of the Tariff Act of 1930 constituted a use provision. See M. Pressner & Co. v. United States, 42 CCPA 48, 49 (1954); Frank P. Dow Co. v. United States, 21 CCPA 282, 287 (1933); see also Stewart-Warner Corp. v. United States, 748 F.2d 663, 667 (Fed. Cir. 1984) (noting that the trade court had previously determined that “household utensils” was a use classification).

Even if “household utensils” were a use provision, that does not change the outcome of this case. As the government points out, the term “utensil” is defined as “an implement, instrument, or vessel used in a household and especially a kitchen.” Appellee’s Br. 33 (quoting Utensil, Merriam-Webster, <https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/utensil> (last visited May 10, 2021)). Thus, the term “utensil,” like the term “toy,” suggests a specific use and could be construed as a use provision. Processed Plastics, 473 F.3d at 1170 (discussing the tariff term “Other toys”). As we have noted, in contrast, the term “Article” does not suggest a type of use and should not be construed as creating a use provision.

In SGI, this court determined that the items at issue (soft-sided coolers) fell under HTSUS heading 3924.10.50, explaining that “the coolers may be considered ‘household articles’ because ‘[t]he coolers may be used in a number of locations where food or beverages might be consumed.’” SGI, 122 F.3d at 1473 (quoting SGI, Inc. v. United States, 917 F. Supp. 822, 825 (Ct. Int’l Trade 1996), rev’d, 122 F.3d 1468) (alteration in original). Whether HTSUS heading 3924 constitutes a use provision or an eo nomine provision did not affect the result of that case. The coolers would have been classifiable under HTSUS heading 3924 even if the heading were an eo nomine provision because they were located in the household. We do not view SGI as determining that HTSUS heading 3924 was a use provision.⁴

S.C. Johnson also points to Customs’ website, which states that “other household articles . . . [i]ncludes any article principally used in or around the home.” Appellant’s Reply Br. 15 (quoting U.S. Dept’ of Homeland Security, The Importation of Tableware, Kitchenware, Other Household Articles and Toilet Articles of Plastics 9, https://www.cbp.gov/sites/default/files/assets/documents/2020-Feb/icp031_3.pdf). However, S.C. Johnson agrees that this court need not afford deference to Customs’ website.

We conclude that HTSUS heading 3924 encompasses goods of plastic commonly found in the home and affirm the Trade Court’s determination that the heading is an eo nomine provision. ARI 1(a) therefore does not apply. We also agree that the sandwich bags are prima facie classifiable under HTSUS heading 3924.

⁴ We additionally note that SGI was superseded by statute when HTSUS heading 4202 was amended by Presidential Proclamation to include “insulated food or beverage bags.” Proclamation 7515, 66 Fed. Reg. 66,549, 66,619 (Dec. 18, 2001), as corrected by Technical Corrections to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, 67 Fed. Reg. 2008 (Jan. 15, 2002). SGI’s conclusion that insulated cooler bags are not classifiable under HTSUS heading 4202 because the provision “[did] not include containers that organize, store, protect, or carry food or beverages,” 122 F.3d at 1472, is therefore no longer good law.

III

Because the Trade Court concluded that the sandwich bags were prima facie classifiable under both HTSUS headings, it applied GRI 3 to determine which heading provided the more specific description of the products. The Trade Court believed that HTSUS heading 3923 describes the bags more specifically than HTSUS heading 3924. Neither party challenges the Trade Court's determination that HTSUS heading 3923 "has requirements that are more difficult to satisfy and describe the article with a greater degree of accuracy and certainty." J.A. 24.

We therefore affirm the Trade Court's determination that the sandwich bags are properly classified under HTSUS Heading 3923.

OPINION

Katzmann, Judge:

The court returns to a dispute over a scope ruling regarding anti-dumping (“AD”) duty and countervailing duty (“CVD”) orders on certain hardwood plywood products from China. In its original determination, Commerce accepted a scope ruling request by Coalition for Fair Trade in Hardwood Plywood (“Coalition”) and Masterbrand Cabinets, Inc. (“Masterbrand”), a domestic cabinets manufacturer, (collectively, “Petitioner-Masterbrand”), to confirm the inclusion of certain products in the scope of Commerce’s orders. Before the court is Commerce’s Final Results of Redetermination Pursuant to Court Remand (Dep’t Commerce Jan. 11, 2021), ECF No. 82 (“Remand”).

Results”), which the court ordered in Fabuwood Cabinetry Corp. v. United States, 44 CIT ___, 469 F. Supp. 3d 1373 (2020) (“Fabuwood I”), so that Commerce could further explain or reconsider its decision to accept Petitioner-Masterbrand’s scope ruling request. On remand, after revisiting its prior determination, Commerce reversed itself and concluded that the scope ruling request in issue was deficient in critical respects and did not provide a sufficient basis for Commerce to issue a scope ruling. Now, none of the litigants — neither Plaintiff Fabuwood Cabinetry Corp. (“Fabuwood”), Consolidated-Plaintiffs CNC Associates N.Y., Inc. (“CNC”) and Cubitac Cabinetry Corporation (“Cubitac”), Plaintiff-Intervenor IKEA Supply AG (“IKEA”), nor Defendant-Intervenors Petitioner-Masterbrand — challenge the Remand Results. See CNC’s Cmts. on Final Results of Redetermination at 1–2, Feb. 10, 2021, ECF No. 85 (“CNC’s Br.”); Def.-Inters.’ Cmts. on Remand Redetermination at 2, Feb. 10, 2021, ECF No. 86 (“Def.-Inters.’ Br.”). Defendant the United States (“Government”) requests that the court sustain Commerce’s Remand Results. Def.’s Resp. to Cmts. on Remand Redetermination at 2, Feb. 23, 2021, ECF No. 87 (“Def.’s Br.”). The court affirms Commerce’s Remand Results and enters judgment for the Government.

BACKGROUND

The court set out the relevant legal and factual background of the proceedings in further detail in its previous opinion, Fabuwood I, 469 F. Supp. 3d at 1376–82. Information relevant to the instant opinion is set forth below.

On January 4, 2018, Commerce issued AD and CVD orders on certain hardwood plywood from China. Certain Hardwood Plywood Products From the People’s Republic of China, 83 Fed. Reg. 504 (Dep’t Commerce Jan. 4, 2018) (“AD Order”); Certain Hardwood Plywood Products From the People’s Republic of China, 83 Fed. Reg. 513 (Dep’t Commerce Jan. 4, 2018) (“CVD Order”) (collectively, “Orders”). The Orders excluded certain ready to assemble (“RTA”) kitchen cabinets “packaged for sale for ultimate purchase by an end-user that, at the time of importation” include all components and instructions required for assembly. AD Order at 513; CVD Order at 516.

Interested parties to AD and CVD investigations may request a scope ruling to clarify the scope of an order by Commerce as it relates to a particular product by submitting an application including a specific description of the product and the basis for the scope ruling request “to the extent reasonably available to the interested party.” 19 C.F.R. § 351.225(c). On April 6, 2018, Petitioner-Masterbrand filed an application for a scope ruling with Commerce related to certain RTA kitchen cabinet products. See Letter from Petitioner-Masterbrand to Sec’y of Commerce Re: Certain Hardwood Plywood Products from the People’s Republic of China: Request for Scope Ruling, P.R. 1. Petitioner-Masterbrand further amended this request on July 13, 2018, at Commerce’s request after Commerce received comments from other interested parties. See Mem. from A. Brings to The File, re: Certain Hardwood Plywood Products from the People’s Republic of China: Petitioner-Masterbrand 2018 Scope Ruling Request (July 17, 2018), P.R. 45; Letter from Wiley Rein LLP to Sec’y of Commerce, Re: Certain Hardwood Plywood from the People’s Republic of China: Amendment to Request for Scope Ruling (July 13, 2018), P.R. 43 (“Amended Scope Ruling Request”). Commerce accepted the Amended Scope Ruling Request and issued a final scope ruling on September 7, 2018, finding that the products as described by Petitioner-Masterbrand in the Amended Scope Ruling Request were within the scope of the Orders. Mem. from J. Doyle to J. Maeder, re: Final Scope Ruling For Certain Hardwood Plywood Products From the People’s Republic of China: Request by the Coalition for Fair Trade in Hardwood Plywood and Masterbrand Cabinets, Inc. (Sept. 7, 2018), P.R. 71 (“Final Scope Ruling”).

On October 10, 2018, Fabuwood initiated the instant litigation challenging Commerce’s Final Scope Ruling. Summons, ECF No.1; Compl., Nov. 9, 2018, ECF No. 10. On August 19, 2020, the court concluded that “Commerce failed to address the threshold question of whether [Petitioner-Masterbrand’s Amended Scope Ruling Request] was specific enough to provide an adequate basis for a scope ruling.” Fabuwood I, 469 F. Supp. 3d at 1383. Thus, the court remanded the Final Scope Ruling to “Commerce for further explanation on whether the Amended Scope Ruling Request met the regulatory requirements.” Id. at 1385. Commerce filed its Remand Results on January 11, 2021, concluding that, upon reexamination, Petitioner-Masterbrand’s Amended Scope Request Ruling did not meet regulatory requirements. Remand Results at 31. Consolidated-Plaintiff CNC Associates and Petitioner-Masterbrand filed comments on the Remand Results on February 10, 2021. CNC’s Br.; Def.-Inter.’s Br. Neither Fabuwood, Cubitac, nor IKEA commented on the Remand Results before the court. The Government replied in support of Commerce’s redetermination on February 23, 2021. Def.’s Br.

JURISDICTION AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

The court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1581(c). The standard of review in this action is set forth in 19 U.S.C. § 1516a(b)(1)(B)(i): “[t]he court shall hold unlawful any determination, finding or conclusion found . . . to be unsupported by substantial evidence on the record, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” The court also reviews the determinations pursuant to remand “for compliance with the court’s remand order.” See Beijing Tianhai Indus. Co. v. United States, 39 CIT __, __, 106 F. Supp. 3d 1342, 1346 (2015) (citations omitted).

DISCUSSION

In its previous opinion, the court remanded “the scope ruling to Commerce for further explanation on whether the Amended Scope Ruling Request met the regulatory requirements” for providing a basis for Commerce to conduct a scope inquiry. Fabuwood I, 469 F. Supp. 3d at 1385. This order followed the court’s conclusion that Commerce did not provide a reasonably discernible rationale for accepting the Amended Scope Ruling Request or address the comments in opposition to that request in its Final Scope Ruling. Id. at 1383–84. On remand, Commerce “revisited the record and reevaluated the Amended Scope Ruling Request” and determined “that the Amended Scope Ruling Request does not meet the requirements of 19 C.F.R. § 351.225(c)(1) because it suffers from several deficiencies that must be remedied before Commerce is able to evaluate the products for which the requestor seeks a scope ruling.” Remand Results at 2. First, as in the original scope inquiry, Commerce again determined that the Amended Scope Ruling provided a sufficiently specific definition of the merchandise subject to the scope request based on the information reasonably available to Petitioner-Masterbrand, including specific HTSUS subheadings. Id. at 8–9, 17. Commerce distinguished other instances in which it had rejected a scope request as deficient for lack of detailed product descriptions on the basis that the cases cited by commenters “appear[ed] to involve scope ruling requests from parties that would likely have been in possession of the types of information available to an importer or producer of the products subject to the request” unlike Petitioner-Masterbrand, a non-importer. Id. at 10. Second, Commerce re-examined the sufficiency of the supporting evidence underlying the Amended Scope Ruling Request. Reversing its original position, Commerce determined that “the request is insufficiently supported because: (1) [Petitioner-Masterbrand] stated that [they] had additional, relevant information reasonably available to them . . . which they did not supply; or (2) they failed to supply information showing that the products in support of their allegation were in production.” Id. at 11. Furthermore, Commerce explained that “when available, first-hand statements are preferable to second-hand information and, in this case, [were] not only reasonably available but [were] also readily available.” Id. at 13; see also id. at 24–25 (explaining that the source for information provided in the second-hand statements were not discernible to Commerce and could have been provided). Additionally, Commerce noted that Petitioner-Masterbrand did not include the public records they cited in support of their scope request, which Commerce concluded were “reasonably available” and “necessary to the evaluation of the sufficiency of the scope inquiry.” Id. at 13; see also id. at 26–27. Finally, Commerce concluded that Petitioner-Masterbrand did not adequately support or explain their reason for the scope request as to edge-banded plywood. Id. at 13–14, 28. For these reasons, Commerce concluded that the Amended Scope Ruling Request was deficient and unable to be a basis for Commerce’s scope inquiry. Id. at 14. Commerce also noted that it would allow a further amended or revised scope ruling request apart from the instant case or to submit a new scope request to be submitted. Id. at 14, 31.

No party disputes Commerce’s Remand Results. In its comments, CNC noted its disagreement with Commerce’s determination that the product descriptions were sufficient in the scope request, but that “it agrees with and supports Commerce’s conclusion that Petitioner-Masterbrand’s request for a scope ruling was deficient in other critical respects and therefore did not provide a sufficient basis for Commerce to issue a Final Scope Ruling.” CNC’s Br. at 1–2. Petitioner-Masterbrand stated that they “disagree with Commerce’s conclusion and reasoning in its final determination and believe that the scope request complied with Commerce’s regulations.” Def.-Inters.’ Br. at 1. However, Petitioner-Masterbrand note their position that “the most effective and efficient way for [them] to address the scope questions raised in the scope request is to refile any needed scope request with the agency.” Id. Furthermore, Petitioner-Masterbrand note that since the filing of the initial scope request, AD and CVD orders have been imposed directly on RTA kitchen cabinets and hardwood plywood that has undergone minor processing — the subject of Petitioner-Masterbrand’s initial scope request. Id. at 1–2 (citing Wooden Cabinets and Vanities and Components Thereof from the People’s Republic of China, 85 Fed. Reg. 22,126 (Dep’t Commerce Apr. 21, 2020) (AD duty order); Wooden Cabinets and Vanities and Components Thereof from the People’s Republic of China, 85 Fed. Reg. 22,134 (Dep’t Commerce Apr. 21, 2020) (CVD order)). No other parties submitted comments on the Remand Results. In response to the comments filed, the Government contends that Commerce’s Remand Results can be sustained “because Commerce complied with the [c]ourt’s remand order and its determination is supported by substantial evidence and otherwise in accordance with law.” Def.’s Br. at 2.

The court concludes that Commerce complied with its remand order as set forth in Fabuwood I, 469 F. Supp. 3d at 1389. Commerce addressed and adequately explained the parties’ arguments regarding the sufficiency of the Amended Scope Ruling Request. No party contests Commerce’s Remand Results, despite some disagreement with certain aspects of that determination.¹ See CNC’s Br. at 1; Def.-Inters.’ Br. at 1–2. Therefore, the court need not address the outstanding disagreements and concludes the Remand Results should be sustained as supported by substantial evidence and in accordance with law.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated, there being no challenges to the Remand Results, and those results being otherwise lawful and supported by substantial evidence, the court sustains Commerce’s Remand Results. Judgment will enter accordingly in favor of Defendant.

SO ORDERED.

JUDGE

¹ The court agrees with the Government that Petitioner-Masterbrand’s statement in its comments that it “does not intend to further challenge Commerce’s remand determination” constitutes waiver of any claim to relief. See Def.’s Br. at 9; United States v. Am. Home Assurance Co., 40 CIT __, __, 151 F. Supp. 3d 1328, 1361 (2016) (“[W]aiver is ordinarily evidenced by an intentional relinquishment or abandonment of a known right or privilege” (citations and internal quotation omitted)). Similarly, the court need not address CNC’s disagreement with Commerce’s product specificity finding because CNC has not meaningfully challenged or briefed the issue and, in any event, concedes agreement with Commerce’s conclusion about the deficiency of the Amended Scope Ruling Request. See Cement Kiln Recycling Coal. v. EPA, 255 F.3d 855, 869 (D.C. Cir. 2001) (“A litigant does not properly raise an issue by addressing it in a cursory fashion with only bare-bones arguments.” (citations and internal quotations omitted)); CNC’s Br. at 1–2.

OPINION AND ORDER

Barnett, Chief Judge:

This matter is before the court following the U.S. Department of Commerce’s (“Commerce” or “the agency”) redetermination upon court-ordered remand. See Results of Redetermination Pursuant to Court Remand (“Remand Results”), ECF No. 34–1; see generally *Carpenter Tech. ¹ The administrative record associated with the Final Results is divided into a Public Administrative Record, ECF No. 20–1, and a Confidential Administrative Record, ECF No. 20–2. The administrative record for the Remand Results is likewise divided into a public record and confidential record. See [Am.] Public Index to Admin. [Remand] R., ECF No. 49–2; Confidential Index to Admin. [Remand] R., ECF No. 35–2. Parties submitted a joint appendix containing record documents cited in their remand briefs. See Public Remand J.A., ECF No. 50. Venus’s comments on the draft remand results and Commerce’s final calculation memorandum for the Remand Results were filed separately by Plaintiffs. Confidential Pls.’ Submission of R. Docs., Attach. 1 (“Venus’s Draft Remand Cmts.”), Attach. 2, ECF No. 51; see also [Public] Pls.’ Submission of R. Docs., ECF No. 52.

Plaintiffs² commenced this action alleging, inter alia, that Commerce failed to adequately explain its selection of partial adverse facts available (or “partial AFA”)³ used to determine Defendant-Intervenors’ (“Venus”)⁴ antidumping duty margin. See Compl. ¶¶ 20–21. In Carpenter Technology I, the court granted Defendant United States’ (“the Government”) request to remand the Final Results to Commerce to permit the agency to explain further its selection of partial AFA and “modify its determination accordingly.” 477 F. Supp. 3d at 1362.

In the remand redetermination, Commerce further explained its partial AFA methodology used in the Final Results. See Remand Results at 6–9. Additionally, Commerce made three corrections to Venus’s margin calculation program, which increased its rate from 5.35 percent to 24.60 percent. See id. at 9–11.

Following Commerce’s issuance of the Remand Results, Laxcon Steels Limited (“Laxcon”), “a producer/exporter of the subject merchandise . . . who contested” the rate assigned to non-individually examined respondents in the Final Results, filed a motion for permissive intervention as a defendant-intervenor. See Mot. to Intervene (“Laxcon’s Mot.”) at 2, ECF No. 36. Plaintiffs and the Government opposed Laxcon’s motion. See Pls.’ Opp’n to Mot. to Intervene, ECF No. 42; Def.’s Resp. to [Laxcon’s] Mot. to Intervene, ECF No. 43. Venus took no position on the motion. See [Venus’s] Resp. to [Laxcon’s] Mot. to Intervene, ECF No. 44.

Venus submitted comments on the Remand Results contending that the three adjustments to its margin program are not in accordance with the law and exceed the scope of the court’s remand order. See [Venus’s] Cmts. on the Remand Redetermination (“Venus’s Cmts.”), ECF No. 40. The Government and Plaintiffs urge the court to sustain the Remand Results in their entirety. See Def.’s Resp. to Cmts. on the Remand Redetermination (“Gov’t’s Cmts.”), ECF No. 46; Pls.’ Cmts. in Supp. of the Remand Redetermination (“Pls.’ Cmts.”), ECF No. 47.

² Plaintiffs consist of Carpenter Technology Corporation; Crucible Industries LLC; Electralloy, a Division of G.O. Carlson, Inc.; North American Stainless; Valbruna Slater Stainless, Inc.; Universal Stainless Alloy Products, Inc.

For the following reasons, the court denies Laxcon’s motion and sustains Commerce’s Remand Results.

JURISDICTION AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

The court has jurisdiction pursuant to section 516A(a)(2)(B)(iii) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1516a(a)(2)(B)(iii) (2018),⁵ and 28 U.S.C. § 1581(c). The court will uphold an agency determination that is supported by substantial evidence and otherwise in accordance with law. 19 U.S.C. § 1516a(b)(1)(B)(i). “The results of a redetermination pursuant to court remand are also reviewed for compliance with the court’s remand order.” SolarWorld Ams., Inc. v. United States, 41 CIT ___, ___, 273 F. Supp. 3d 1314, 1317 (2017) (citation omitted).

BACKGROUND⁶

For the Preliminary Results, Commerce explained that Venus reported consuming certain stainless steel rounds (“SS rounds”), which it purchased from an unaffiliated producer, to produce subject merchandise. See Decision Mem. for Prelim. Results of Antidumping Duty Admin. Review, A-533–810 (Apr. 9, 2019) (“Prelim. Mem.”) at 5–6, available at <https://enforcement.trade.gov/frn/summary/india/2019-07560-1.pdf> (last visited May 24, 2021). Commerce determined that the SS rounds in question were subject merchandise, id. at 8; the stainless steel bar produced from the purchased SS rounds were produced by Venus’s suppliers, id. at 5–6, 8; and, thus, Venus was required to provide the unaffiliated suppliers’ cost of production for the SS rounds, id. at 9. Venus failed to provide this information and Commerce preliminarily relied on partial AFA to determine the cost of production for the SS rounds at issue. See id. at 10. For the Final Results, Commerce continued to rely on partial AFA to determine the cost of production for the SS rounds but revised its AFA methodology without providing interested parties an opportunity to comment on that methodology. See Carpenter Tech. I, 477 F. Supp. 3d at 1361–62.

Plaintiffs filed a motion for judgment on the agency record contending that: “(1) Commerce did not adequately explain or provide notice of its decision to revise its methodology for determining partial AFA for the Final Results; and (2) Commerce’s application of the revised methodology [was] not supported by substantial evidence or in accordance with the law.” Id. at 1359 (citations omitted). The Government requested that the court remand the matter in its entirety to allow the agency to further explain or reconsider the partial AFA methodology “and if appropriate, the rates assigned to the respondents.” Id. (citation omitted). Venus contended that the Government’s remand request was “overly broad and vague,” id. at 1362 n.8, but otherwise took no position on the remand request, id. at 1359.

The court found that substantial and legitimate concerns supported the Government’s remand request and granted it. See id. at 1361–63. In so doing, the court rejected Venus’s contention that the scope of the remand request was overly broad and vague. See id. at 1362 n.8. The court found that “the scope of the requested remand [was] appropriate,” and that “it [was] appropriate that the court remand this matter to allow Commerce to consider Plaintiffs’ arguments and further explain or modify its determination accordingly.” Id. at 1362.

In the remand redetermination, Commerce continued to rely on the revised partial AFA methodology from the Final Results and provided further explanation for doing so. See Remand Results at 6–9. Commerce also made three changes to Venus’s margin program in conjunction with its application of partial AFA.

First, Commerce explained that it had not included some of Venus’s U.S. sales in the Final Results margin calculation. See id. at 9. Thus, for the Remand Results, Commerce included all of Venus’s U.S. sales in its margin program. See id. at 10, 17.

Second, Commerce also explained that the partial AFA methodology used in the Final Results “did not match sales and costs by manufacturer as required by the statute and Commerce’s normal practice.” Id. at 10 (discussing the agency’s obligations pursuant to 19 U.S.C. §§ 1677(16) and 1677b(a)(1)(B)(1)). On remand, Commerce “considered manufacturer codes when comparing [the] U.S., home market and cost databases in [the] analysis.” Id. at 10–11 (citation omitted); see also id. at 17–18.

Third, Commerce determined that it was appropriate to make its AFA adjustment not only to Venus’s cost of production, but also to the other components of cost, including variable cost of manufacture and fixed and variable overhead. See id. at 11, 18. These adjustments were appropriate to reflect more accurately Commerce’s use of AFA in the calculation of difference-in-merchandise adjustments when comparing U.S. sales to home market sales. Id. at 11.

Venus contended that the three changes to its margin calculation program were “fundamentally unfair.” Id. at 15; see also Venus’s Draft Remand Cmts. at 2–3. Venus did not, however, challenge the evidentiary basis underlying the corrections. See Venus’s Draft Remand Cmts. at 2–3. Commerce rejected Venus’s contentions, Remand Results at 16–19, and as a result of the foregoing changes, Venus’s rate changed from 5.35 percent to 24.60 percent, id. at 9.

DISCUSSION

I. Laxcon’s Motion to Intervene

U.S. Court of International Trade (“USCIT”) Rule 24 provides for two types of intervention: intervention of right and permissive intervention. See also 28 U.S.C. § 2631(j)(1), (2). A party must seek intervention as a matter of right “no later than 30 days after the date of service of the complaint” unless the party can show good cause for the delay. USCIT Rule 24(a)(3). Alternatively, a party may move for permissive intervention, in which case “the court must consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the original parties’ rights.” USCIT Rule 24(b)(3); see also 28 U.S.C. § 2631(j)(2). In a case arising under 19 U.S.C. § 1516a, such as this, “only an interested party who was a party to the proceeding in connection with which the matter arose may intervene, and such person may intervene as a matter of right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2631(j)(1)(B); see also Dofasco Inc. v. United States, 31 CIT 1592, 1594–95, 519 F. Supp. 2d 1284, 1286 (2007) (collecting cases and explaining that “the right to intervene established [under 28 U.S.C. § 2631(j)(1)(B)] [was] the only means by which [a party] may intervene in” that case, which arose under 19 U.S.C. § 1516a).

Laxcon acknowledges that the deadline has passed for it to intervene as a matter of right and does not attempt to show good cause for the delay. Laxcon’s Mot. at 2. Thus, the court declines to construe the motion as one to intervene as of right. Instead, Laxcon moves for permissive intervention. See id. at 2–3. Because the statute does not permit Laxcon to intervene as a permissive intervenor in this case, the court denies Laxcon’s motion.⁷ See 28 U.S.C. § 2631(j)(1)(B).

II. Venus’s Challenges to the Remand Results

A. Parties’ Contentions

Venus urges the court to remand the Remand Results for three reasons. First, Venus contends that Commerce “exceeded the scope of its own request for voluntary remand and the scope of the [c]ourt’s grant of that request.” Venus’s Cmts. at 2. Second, Venus contends that Commerce's changes to its margin calculation program demonstrate that the purpose of the Government's remand request had nothing to do with the partial AFA methodology but was meant to allow Commerce to determine a higher, punitive margin. See id. at 4–5. Third, Venus contends that remand is necessary so that Commerce may take into account the court's opinion in Venus Wire Indus. Pvt. Ltd. v. United States, 44 CIT ___, 471 F. Supp. 3d 1289 (2020), in which the court remanded Commerce's reliance on total AFA in the changed circumstances review of the antidumping duty order. See id. at 6–7.

The Government contends that the court should reject Venus's argument that Commerce exceeded the scope of the remand order because Venus did not exhaust its administrative remedies with respect to this argument. Gov't's Cmts. at 6. Alternatively, the Government contends that the court should construe the remand order as allowing Commerce to make the corrections at issue. Id. at 6, 8; see also Pls.' Cmts. at 2–4 (arguing that Commerce did not exceed the scope of the court's remand order).

Next, the Government and Plaintiffs aver that Commerce appropriately considered the inducement effect of increasing Venus's margin in making the corrections at issue. See Gov't's Cmts. at 9–10; Pls.' Cmts. at 4. The Government further contends that the court should not remand Commerce's reliance on partial AFA in light of the court's decision in Venus Wire because “the [c]ourt's decision in [Venus Wire] involves a different determination by Commerce in a separate segment of the proceeding with a different record and facts.” Gov't's Cmts. at 11; see also Pls.' Cmts. at 4. Finally, the Government urges the court to reject Venus's challenges to Commerce's reliance on partial AFA because Venus chose not to appeal the Final Results and may not now litigate its own challenges to Commerce's determination. See Gov't's Cmts. at 11.

B. Commerce Did Not Exceed the Scope of the Court's Remand Order

As a general matter, “[u]nless specifically directed by the court, Commerce has broad discretion to fully consider the issues remanded.” ABB, Inc. v. United States, 41 CIT ___, ___ n.14, 273 F. Supp. 3d 1186, 1199 n.14 (2017), aff'd, 920 F.3d 811 (Fed. Cir. 2019) (citation omitted); cf. Chung Ling Co. v. United States, 17 CIT 829, 833–34, 829 F. Supp. 1353, 1358–59 (1993), aff'd, 29 F.3d 645 (Fed. Cir. 1994) (finding that the scope of the remand order permitted certain corrections to the injury determination).

In Carpenter Technology I, the court granted the Government's request to remand the matter "in its entirety," 477 F. Supp. 3d at 1362 n.10, and permitted the agency to "further explain or modify its determination accordingly," id. at 1362. Given the broad language of the remand order and the absence of limiting language, Commerce was permitted on remand to reconsider those aspects of Venus's margin that resulted in the corrections at issue. See Remand Results at 9–11.

Venus relies on Zhaoqing Tifo New Fibre Co. v. United States, 41 CIT ___, ___, 256 F. Supp. 3d 1314, 1334–35 (2017), for the proposition that "remand instructions need not contain 'specific limiting instructions' in order for Commerce to have been found to exceed the scope of the remand instructions." Venus's Cmts. at 3 & n.7. However, the court in Zhaoqing Tifo concluded that Commerce exceeded the scope of the remand instructions when it made a change that went beyond the litigated issue in that case. 256 F. Supp. 3d at 1335–37 (finding Commerce's change of financial statements on remand to exceed the remand instructions). In contrast, in this case, the court used broad language in issuing the remand order and the changes are directly related to Commerce's application of its partial AFA methodology as remanded by the court. Thus, Zhaoqing Tifo is inapplicable.

Accordingly, the court finds that Commerce did not exceed the scope of the remand order by making the corrections at issue.⁸

C. Commerce's Changes to Venus's Margin Calculation are in Accordance with the Law

Venus takes issue with Commerce's statement that the corrections at issue were appropriate to "potentially induce [Venus] in future segments to source from producers of subject merchandise that will cooperate in these proceedings by providing necessary information."⁹ Venus's Cmts. at 5 (quoting Remand Results at 9). According to Venus, the true purpose of the remand request was to provide Commerce an opportunity "to return a higher and more punitive margin in an effort to induce future cooperation." Id.

⁹ Venus also contends that the Government's remand request and the resulting redetermination are invalid because Commerce did not identify an error in the Final Results that it sought to correct on remand, and thus, the remand request lacked compelling justification. See Venus's Cmts. at 4. The court rejected this argument in Carpenter Technology I and will not reconsider that decision here. 447 F. Supp. 3d at 1362 & n.8 (rejecting Venus's argument that the Government's remand request failed to identify an error, and thus, was overly vague).

The court disagrees. As an initial matter, Venus does not explain why it considers that the corrections at issue were unlawfully punitive, inappropriate, or unreasonable in the exercise of the agency's discretion to select facts available with an adverse inference to fill gaps in the record that Venus did not otherwise fill. Moreover, it is well established that Commerce may rely on AFA to induce respondents to cooperate with the agency's investigations in the future and "ensure that the party does not obtain a more favorable result by failing to cooperate than if it had cooperated fully." Uruguay Round Agreements Act, Statement of Administrative Action ("SAA"),¹⁰ H.R. Doc. No. 103-316, vol. 1, at 870 (1994), reprinted in 1994 U.S.C.C.A.N. 4040, 4199; see also Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd. v. United States, 748 F.3d 1365, 1373 (Fed. Cir. 2014). Commerce's reference to a possible inducement effect of its selection of AFA does not, by itself, suggest a punitive or otherwise inappropriate basis for Commerce's changes to the margin calculation program and the court will not infer an improper motive solely on the basis of the result.

For these reasons, the court rejects Venus's argument that Commerce's reasons for making the corrections at issue were unlawful.

D. The Court Will Not Order a Remand in Light of Venus Wire

Finally, Venus contends that a remand is necessary so that Commerce may consider the court's opinion in Venus Wire, which remanded the agency's reliance on total AFA in the changed circumstances review of the antidumping duty order. See Venus's Cmts. at 6; see generally Venus Wire, 471 F. Supp. 3d at 1307-13 (remanding Commerce's reliance on total AFA).¹¹

Commerce had no occasion to consider Venus Wire in deciding the Final Results because Venus Wire had not yet been decided. See Venus's Cmts. at 6 (acknowledging that the "Final Results were issued after the [c]ourt's decision in "[Venus Wire]") (italicization added). Subsequently, Venus chose not to challenge the Final Results or Commerce's decision to rely on partial AFA and, instead, limited its participation to that of a defendant-intervenor. See Order (Jan. 13, 2020), ECF No. 19. Because Venus is a defendant-intervenor, it may not litigate aspects of Commerce’s determination—including the agency’s reliance on partial AFA—not raised in Plaintiffs’ complaint. See Zhaoqing Tifo New Fibre Co. v. United States, 42 CIT ___, ___, 355 F. Supp. 3d 1285, 1300 (2018) (“Issues that are not the subject of a timely-filed complaint cannot, as a general rule, be entertained by the court.”); Torrington Co. v. United States, 14 CIT 56, 57, 731 F. Supp. 1073, 1075 (1990) (“[A]n intervenor is limited to the field of litigation open to the original parties, and cannot enlarge the issues tendered by or arising out of plaintiff’s bill.”). Thus, the court rejects Venus’s request to require Commerce to reconsider its reliance on partial AFA in light of Venus Wire.

¹⁰ The SAA "shall be regarded as an authoritative expression by the United States concerning the interpretation and application of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act." 19 U.S.C. § 3512(d).

Similarly, Venus acknowledges that it did not challenge Commerce’s reliance on partial AFA in the Final Results because its rate “was only 5.35 percent.” See Venus’s Cmts. at 6. To the extent that Venus seeks relief from the corrections Commerce made to its margin program, Commerce supported those corrections with substantial evidence, see Remand Results at 9–11, 16–19, and Venus does not challenge the evidentiary basis for the corrections.

For these reasons, the court finds that the Remand Results are supported by substantial evidence, in accordance with the law, and consistent with the court’s remand order in Carpenter Technology I.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

In accordance with the foregoing, Commerce’s Remand Results will be sustained. Judgment will enter accordingly. Further, it is ORDERED that Laxcon’s motion to intervene is DENIED.

OPINION AND ORDERStanceu, Judge:

Plaintiff Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Limited (“Fine Furniture”) and a number of other Chinese producers or exporters of multilayered wood flooring brought actions, now consolidated, contesting a final, published determination by the International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce” or the “Department”). Commerce issued that determination to conclude the first periodic administrative review of an antidumping duty order on imports of certain multilayered wood flooring from the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC” or “China”).

Pursuant to a joint motion of plaintiffs, plaintiff-intervenors, defendant, and defendant-intervenor, the court orders Commerce to conduct certain administrative proceedings, as discussed herein, necessitated by developments since the issuance of the court’s most recent opinion in this litigation. The court denies defendant’s motion to dismiss two plaintiffs, Fine Furniture and Dunhua City Jisen Wood Industry Co., Ltd. (“Dunhua Jisen”) from this case.

I. BACKGROUND

The background of this action is set forth in the court’s prior opinions, which the court summarizes and supplements herein. See Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd. v. United States, 40 CIT __, 182 F. Supp. 3d 1350 (2016) (“Fine Furniture I”); Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd. v. United States, 41 CIT __, 2017 WL 2928783 (July 7, 2017) (“Fine Furniture II”); Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd. v. United States, 42 CIT __, 321 F. Supp. 3d 1282 (2018) (“Fine Furniture III”).

A. The Contested Determination

Commerce published the contested determination (the “Amended Final Results”) as Multilayered Wood Flooring from the People’s Republic of China: Amended Final Results of the Antidumping Duty Administrative Review; 2011–2012, 79 Fed. Reg. 35,314 (Int’l Trade Admin. June 20, 2014) (“Amended Final Results”).

B. The Order and the First Administrative Review

Commerce issued an antidumping duty order on certain multilayered wood flooring from the PRC (the “Order”) in late 2011. Multilayered Wood Flooring From the People’s Republic of China: Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Antidumping Duty Order, 76 Fed. Reg. 76,690 (Int’l Trade Admin. Dec. 8, 2011) (“Order”). In the antidumping duty investigation resulting in the Order, Commerce identified three respondents (the “mandatory” respondents) for individual investigation. These were Zhejiang Yuhua Timber Co., Ltd. (“Yuhua”), Zhejiang Layo Wood Industry Co., Ltd. (“Layo Wood”), and the Samling Group (“Samling”). Multilayered Wood Flooring From the People’s Republic of China: Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value, 76 Fed. Reg. 64,318, 64,318 (Int’l Trade Admin. Oct. 18, 2011) (“Final Determination”). Commerce assigned estimated dumping margins of zero to Yuhua, 3.97% to Layo Wood, and 2.63% to Samling. Order, 76 Fed. Reg. at 76,692. Commerce assigned the uninvestigated “separate rate” respondents, a group that included Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen, an estimated rate of 3.30%—the average of the margins assigned to Layo Wood and Samling. Id. at 76,691–92. The “separate rate” respondents were Chinese producers or exporters of the subject merchandise that Commerce found to have established independence from the PRC government but did not select for individual investigation. Final Determination, 76 Fed. Reg. at 64,322.

In January 2013, Commerce initiated the first periodic administrative review of the Order, covering the period of May 26, 2011 through November 30, 2012 (the “period of review” or “POR”). Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews and Request for Revocation in Part, 78 Fed. Reg. 6,291 (Int’l Trade Admin. Jan. 30, 2013). Fine Furniture, a Chinese producer and exporter of multilayered wood flooring, was one of three “mandatory” respondents Commerce selected in the first administrative review for individual examination. See Amended Final Results, 79 Fed. Reg. at 35,315. The other two mandatory respondents in the first review were Armstrong Wood Products (Kunshan) Co., Ltd. (“Armstrong”) and Nanjing Minglin Wooden Industry Co., Ltd. (“Minglin”), who are not parties to this case. See id. at 35,317.

In the Amended Final Results, Commerce assigned Fine Furniture an individual weighted average dumping margin of 5.92% and assigned individual de minimis margins to Armstrong and Minglin. Id. at 35,316. Noting that Fine Furniture was the only respondent assigned an individual weighted average dumping margin that was not de minimis, Commerce assigned a rate of 5.92% to 69 unexamined separate rate respondents. Id. at 35,315. These respondents were Chinese producers or exporters of the subject merchandise that Commerce found to have established independence from the PRC government but did not select for individual examination in the first review. See id. at 35,317.

C. The Parties to this Consolidated Case

Fine Furniture and the “Separate Rate Plaintiffs,” who are 42 of the 69 Chinese producers or exporters of multilayered wood flooring that were unexamined separate rate respondents in the first review, are the plaintiffs and plaintiff-intervenors in this action. Dunhua Jisen is among the Separate Rate Plaintiffs. The Coalition for American Hardwood Parity (the “Coalition”), the petitioner in the antidumping duty investigation, is the defendant-intervenor.

D. Proceedings before the Court

In Fine Furniture I, the court held unlawful the calculation of a deduction Commerce made for Chinese irrecoverable value-added tax (“VAT”) when determining a constructed export price for Fine Furniture’s subject merchandise. Fine Furniture I, 40 CIT at ___, 182 F. Supp. 3d at 1371. Also, the court disallowed two decisions Commerce made in determining the normal value of Fine Furniture’s subject merchandise, which were the Department's choice of financial statements for use in calculating surrogate financial ratios and its calculation of a surrogate value for Fine Furniture's use of electricity. Id.

After defendant requested clarification pertaining to the order the court issued in Fine Furniture I, the court issued an opinion stating that Commerce must reconsider its decision on the financial statements that were most appropriate for use in calculating Fine Furniture's financial ratios. Fine Furniture II, 41 CIT at __, 2017 WL 2928783 at *3.

Commerce filed the first remand redetermination on August 28, 2017, which included a redetermined weighted average dumping margin of 0.73% for Fine Furniture. Fine Furniture III, 42 CIT at __, 321 F. Supp. 3d at 1286. Based on this margin, Commerce assigned a rate of 0.73% to the separate rate respondents involved in the litigation, i.e., the Separate Rate Plaintiffs. Id. The court sustained the Department's recalculation of the deduction for VAT and its decisions on the choice of financial statements for use in determining Fine Furniture's surrogate financial ratios. 42 CIT at __, 321 F. Supp. 3d at 1287–92. The court ordered Commerce to reconsider on remand its selection of the surrogate value for Fine Furniture's electricity usage, reasoning that the record did not contain substantial evidence to support a finding that the rates Commerce selected were the best available information on the record for this purpose. 42 CIT at __, 321 F. Supp. 3d at 1293–97. As a result, the court did not sustain the weighted average dumping margin of 0.73% Commerce determined for Fine Furniture and the equivalent rate Commerce assigned to the Separate Rate Plaintiffs.

Following issuance of the court's opinion and order in Fine Furniture III, Commerce requested an extension of time to file its second remand redetermination. Def.'s Consent Mot. for an Extension of Time to File Remand Redeterm. (Aug. 2, 2018), ECF No. 353. Subsequently, Fine Furniture filed a consent motion for an order staying this case pending the final disposition of an appeal of the judgment of this Court in Changzhou Haud Flooring Co., Ltd. v. United States, 42 CIT __, 324 F. Supp. 3d 1317 (2018). Pl. Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Limited's Consent Mot. to Stay (Mar. 11, 2019), ECF No. 361. The court granted this motion and stayed the action according to the terms of the consent motion. Order (Mar. 19, 2019), ECF No. 362.

The Changzhou Haud litigation related to the antidumping duty investigation culminating in the issuance of the Order. Plaintiffs in that litigation, including Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen, who had requested status as voluntary respondents in the investigation from Commerce but were denied, claimed they should have been excluded from the Order as were the mandatory respondents that received a de minimis estimated weighted average dumping margin.¹ Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd., 42 CIT at __, 324 F. Supp. 3d at 1327. This Court agreed and entered judgment granting the requested relief. Id. at 1328. The Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (“Court of Appeals”) affirmed the judgment. Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd. v. United States, 947 F.3d 781 (Fed. Cir. 2020).

After the resolution of the Changzhou Hawd litigation, Fine Furniture filed an unopposed motion in this action to dissolve the amended preliminary injunction against liquidation of its entries that had been imposed by the court in July 2014. Unopposed Mot. to Dissolve Inj. of Liquidation (July 10, 2020), ECF No. 368. The court granted the motion, lifted the injunction, and ordered liquidation of Fine Furniture’s entries of the subject merchandise that was entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the period of May 26, 2011 through November 30, 2012, excluding the period of November 22, 2011 through December 6, 2011. Order (Sept. 2, 2020), ECF No. 369.

Because the Changzhou Hawd litigation resulted in the exclusion from the Order of only those of the separate rate respondents that had requested voluntary respondent status during the investigation culminating in the Order, including Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen, the separate rate respondents that did not do so remained subject to the Order.

¹ As mentioned, Commerce assigned Zhejiang Layo Wood Industry Co., Ltd. (“Layo Wood”) and the Samling Group (“Samling”), two of the three mandatory respondents in the investigation, estimated dumping duty margins of 3.97% and 2.63%, respectively, as a result of the investigation. Multilayered Wood Flooring From the People’s Republic of China: Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Antidumping Duty Order, 76 Fed. Reg. 76,690, 76,691–92 (Int’l Trade Admin. Dec. 8, 2011) (“Order”). Layo Wood and Samling appealed the Order to this Court, which directed Commerce to reconsider or explain further its use of certain surrogate values in calculating these estimated margins. Baroque Timber Indus. (Zhongshan) Co. v. United States, 37 CIT 1123, 1144, 925 F. Supp. 2d 1332, 1351 (2013). Ultimately, Commerce assigned both respondents estimated margins of zero, which this Court affirmed. Baroque Timber Indus. (Zhongshan) Co. v. United States, 38 CIT __, __n.15, 971 F. Supp. 2d 1333, 1338 n.15 (2014). As a result, all three mandatory respondents in the investigation were excluded from the Order. See Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd. v. United States, 42 CIT __, 324 F. Supp. 3d 1317, 1324–25 (2018). On April 7, 2014, this Court severed Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd., Court No. 12–00020, from Baroque Timber Indus., Consol. Court No. 12–00007, following the affirmation of the de minimis margins assigned to the two mandatory respondents.

This Court noted in Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd. that under the Department’s prior practice, a determination of de minimis margins for all individually-investigated respondents would have terminated the Order. See id. at 1325. This Court ruled that the current practice of including a rate for a “PRC-wide entity” in its determinations enabled Commerce to keep the Order in place in the circumstance presented. Id. One plaintiff in the case argued that Commerce should have terminated the Order ab initio, an argument this Court rejected on the reasoning that the plaintiff “fail[ed] to challenge either the PRC-wide entity policy or the PRC-wide rate.” Id. As a result, this Court sustained the agency’s decision to deny the plaintiff’s request that Commerce terminate the Order. Id.

On February 2, 2021, plaintiffs, plaintiff-intervenors, defendant, and defendant-intervenor submitted a “Joint Status Report” in this action, in which the parties move for a lifting of the stay. Joint Status Report and Proposed Order (Feb. 2, 2021), ECF No. 372 (“Joint Status Report”).² In the Joint Status Report, the parties also move for the entry of a court order directing Commerce to recalculate an anti-dumping duty rate applicable to the separate rate respondents. Id. at 3.

Defendant moves in the Joint Status Report for the dismissal of plaintiffs Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen as parties to this litigation, arguing that the claims of these two parties are moot now that the Court of Appeals has affirmed a decision of this Court sustaining their exclusion from the Order. See Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., 947 F.3d at 793–94. Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen oppose the motion to dismiss them as parties. Joint Status Report 3; Resp. Correcting Position in Joint Status Report 1–2 (Feb. 12, 2021), ECF No. 373 (“Dunhua Jisen’s Response”).

II. DISCUSSION

A. Jurisdiction and Standard of Review

The court exercises jurisdiction according to 28 U.S.C. § 1581(c), under which the court reviews actions commenced under section 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1516a, including an action contesting the final results of an administrative review that the Department issues under section 751 of the Tariff Act, 19 U.S.C. § 1675(a).

B. Expiration of the Stay; Rate to Be Applied to the Separate Rate Respondents

The previously-ordered stay is no longer in effect now that the decision of the Court of Appeals in Changzhou Hawd Flooring Co., Ltd. has become final. See Order (Mar. 19, 2019), ECF No. 362; see also CAFC Mandate in Appeal #18–2335 (Mar. 2, 2020), ECF No. 115.

In the Joint Status Report, defendant requested on behalf of Commerce, with the agreement of the parties, that the court issue a ² The Joint Status Report was signed by counsels for Intervenor Plaintiffs Baishan Huafeng Wood Product Co., Ltd., et al.; Intervenor Plaintiff Lumber Liquidators Services, LLC; Consolidated Plaintiffs Dunhua City Jisen Wood Industry Co., Ltd. (“Dunhua Jisen”), et al.; Plaintiff Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd.; Consolidated Plaintiff Dalian Kemian Wood Industry Co., Ltd., et al.; Defendant the U.S. Department of Commerce; Intervenor Defendant American Hardwood Parity. Joint Status Report and Proposed Order (Feb. 2, 2021), ECF No. 372. The parties note that “Counsel for Consolidated Plaintiff Shanghai Lizhong Wood Products Co., Ltd./The Lizhong Wood Industry Limited Company of Shanghai did not respond to requests for views or consent. Shanghai Lizhong Wood Products is a separate rate respondent who has not participated in this litigation since 2015.” Id. at 1.

“remand to recalculate the separate rate to be assigned to separate rate respondents.” Joint Status Report 4. Based on the information provided to the court in the Joint Status Report, the court concludes that it is appropriate for it to issue an order under which Commerce, in a Second Remand Redetermination, will determine an antidumping duty rate to be applied to these respondents. Fine Furniture, whose individual weighted average dumping margin of 0.73% Commerce most recently chose as the basis for its separate rate, is no longer subject to the Order following the final decision of the Court of Appeals in the Changzhou Haws litigation. Because it has been excluded from the Order, Fine Furniture is no longer an exporter or producer involved in the first periodic administrative review of that Order, the outcome of which remains a matter to be determined by the court. Accordingly, the Department’s determination of a 0.73% rate for the Separate Rate Plaintiffs, which the court did not sustain previously, is no longer under consideration by the court, nor is the issue of a surrogate value for Fine Furniture’s use of electricity. The court will review the Department’s new determination of a separate rate upon the submission of the Department’s Second Remand Redetermination. Defendant submits that a period of 40 days for submission of this decision will be sufficient. Joint Status Report 3.

C. Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen May Remain as Parties

Defendant moves the court to dismiss Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen as parties, arguing that their exclusion from the Order as a result of the Changzhou Haws litigation renders moot their claims in this action. Id. Defendant informs the court that Commerce has issued liquidation instructions to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) for the entries of Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen that were subject to the first review. Id.

Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen request that they remain parties to this case. Id.; Dunhua Jisen’s Response 1–2. They assert that neither party has received “the full relief granted by the Changzhou Haws decision because the entries covered by this appeal have not all yet liquidated and CBP has not yet issued refunds for all the excess deposits made.” Joint Status Report 3; Dunhua Jisen’s Response 1–2. Both parties state they will seek voluntary dismissal “promptly once all entries covered by this appeal have liquidated without regard to antidumping duties with excess duties refunded.” Joint Status Report 3; Dunhua Jisen’s Response 1–2.

This Court may “[o]n motion or on its own . . . drop a party.” USCIT R. 21. This equitable power is “construed liberally in order to promote complete resolution of disputes, thereby preventing multiple lawsuits.” Sunpower Corp. v. United States, 39 CIT __, __, 128 F. Supp. 3d 1333, 1340 (2015).

The court denies defendant’s motion to dismiss Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen as parties in this consolidated action. In order to “promote complete resolution of disputes,” USCIT R. 21, the court rules that the two plaintiffs may remain as parties to the case until the court has received notice that each has obtained its full relief, i.e., that all of their respective entries covered by this appeal have been liquidated and all excess duties refunded. These parties will be directed to notify the court when the processes of liquidation and refund have been completed satisfactorily. The court sees no prejudice to defendant or defendant-intervenor that will arise from allowing plaintiffs to remain in this action until that condition has been met, and defendant has not identified any such prejudice.

III. CONCLUSION AND ORDER

For the reasons discussed above, the court is granting the parties’ motion for an order remanding this case to Commerce for the determination of an antidumping duty rate to be applied to the separate rate respondents.

Pursuant to USCIT Rule 21, the court denies defendant’s motion to dismiss Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen as parties to this action. Therefore, upon review of all papers and proceedings had herein, and upon due deliberation, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties’ joint motion for an order of remand is granted with respect to the determination of an antidumping duty rate to be applied to the separate rate respondents; it is further

ORDERED that defendant’s motion to dismiss plaintiffs Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen pursuant to USCIT Rule 21 be, and hereby is, denied; it is further

ORDERED that Fine Furniture and Dunhua Jisen each shall file a submission notifying the court upon receiving full relief as a result of the liquidation of their respective entries that are subject to this litigation and the refunding of all excess duties that are owed; it is further ORDERED that the court’s previous order directing Commerce to file a Second Remand Redetermination, as set forth in Fine Furniture III, 42 CIT __, 321 F. Supp. 3d 1282 (2018) is hereby amended to read as follows:

It is hereby

ORDERED that Commerce, within forty (40) days of the date of this Opinion and Order, shall issue a new determination upon remand (the “Second Remand Redetermination”) that determines an antidumping duty rate to be applied to the separate rate respondents; it is further

ORDERED that any comments of plaintiffs, plaintiff-intervenors, and defendant-intervenor on the Second Remand Redetermination must be filed with the court no later than thirty (30) days after the filing of the Second Remand Redetermination; and it is further ORDERED that any response of defendant to the aforementioned comments must be filed no later than fifteen (15) days from the date on which the last comment is filed.
