CBP-2019-032718	(b)(6)	On Thursday Feb 28th I applied for the ESTA Visa Waiver Program as an Australian Citizen. This morning I received a response stating "TRAVEL NOT AUTHORISED" under the program. Ahead of applying, I had made certain that I was eligible for the program and believe that I am in every way. I have time sensitive travel booked that has me departing Australia for the US on the 8th of March which is 7 days away. As I believe that there may have been a clerical or information error in the outcome of my application I am requesting information as directed by a CBP officer as to what determined the outcome of my application. With this knowledge I will be able to see if it was just and if not, have grounds to request the ability to apply again ahead of travel.	3/1/2019

CBP-2019-035610	(b)(6)	In August of 2017 I applied for the border patrol. By October 31st of that year I had passed all of the required tests including the structured interview. In February of 2018 I underwent a polygraph exam. Two months later I was notified via email that I was deemed unsuitable for the job. I replied to the email to understand why I was deemed unsuitable, but again I was given a vague answer. I reapplied for the same position, but again I was deemed unsuitable. I want to make a career with the Department of Homeland Security, but unfortunately this situation has hindered my chances. I have a very clean record and it certainly can't be that. I am looking to find out why I was deemed unsuitable for the position Thank you.	3/12/2019

CBP-2019-035669	(b)(6)	I would like to know why my Nexus request was denied, the only thing that happened was once my laptop was kept for inspection, then after several weeks, it was shipped back to me and I got in a phone conversation with a supervisor telling me that it was all good. I asked him to explain if there were any consequences or if I could go back the country and he said all was good, I could come back and I would not be charged with anything, so I thought everything was okay. I am very surprised if it is concerning that since I had no clue nor any accusation or any other specific treatment when I came back. The event mentioned occurred in 2012 or early 2013 at Detroit Namara Airport. Moreover, I never received the refusal letter; I had to contact Nexus Canadian side to inform me of my refusal from the United States. I do not have a criminal record and I did go through a backcheck in order to have my current position as a Federal Employee for the Government of Canada.	3/13/2019

CBP-2019-036303	(b)(6)	In Feb. 2005, I was stopped and questioned in New York state by an official who asked me to present my passport and I-20. I don't exactly remember where it happened, but it should be one of three, Clinton County, Franklin County or St. Lawrence County of New York State. The official told me that I was unlawfully present in the U.S. because my I-20 had been already terminated. The official photographed, fingerprinted me, and put me on trial. Six months later, I was present at the court in Buffalo, NY in August or September in 2005. I was present at the court without lawyer, and the judge in the court told me that I should present with my lawyer on next trial which would be held six months later, Feb or Mar. 2006. I was mentally and physically exhausted, so I came back to Korea in Oct. 2005, without being present at the court in Feb. 2006. I might have to temporarily visit to the U.S. due to my career and apply for the proper U.S. visa in future, so, I'd like to check FOIA in advance.	3/15/2019

CBP-2019-036685	(b)(6)	I was held at Vancouver International Airport on Feb 8, 2019 at Canadian customs and again on Feb 11, 2019 at US Customs when leaving Vancouver, Canada. There appeared to be an extensive misunderstanding about why I was being held in customs. They asked if I had past police encounters in Vancouver (which I did not have) and other items which I had no clue when they were talking about. They took my computer and phone and made me check those so I was stuck in the airport for 12 hours with no ability to contact my family. The 4 hours I spent being interrogated in customs was incredibly stressful and entirely unnecessary. They searched by bags at US Customs for hours and again when I landed in Portland, OR my bags were searched on the jetway. Nobody would provide any information to me and I would like to know what is going on.	3/18/2019

CBP-2019-036856	(b)(6)	I was stopped at the airport in Detroit and denied entry into the U.S. on my tourist visa. I would like to know specifically what is filed in my records with CBP so that I can successfully apply for a visa in the future. I was treated unfairly by CBP in Detroit and false assumptions were made by CBP about my intent of travel in the U.S. My intent of travel was purely for touristic purposes which included visiting my friend in his hometown in Maine and visiting the northeastern cities of Washington D.C, New York, and Boston. Upon being denied, I was told that I would receive a document outlining the reasons why I was denied. However, CBP in Detroit failed to provide me with this document before I was required to board my return flight. Upon later inquiry I was told that I needed to file this FOIA request to obtain this information. Furthermore, today I attempted to reapply for a tourist visa at the U.S. Embassy in Bangkok and was told by the interviewing office that my record was "very bad" and therefore I had no chance of getting a new visa. This was despite having all supporting documents, financial means, full employment in Thailand etc. Therefore it is essential that I understand the contents of my record. I believe it is likely based on false assumptions made by CBP in Detroit.	3/18/2019

CBP-2019-037249	(b)(6)	Hi, I put in request CBP-2019-036949 yesterday and I received an email that my request was closed but I cannot seem to appeal that. I believe there was some confusion on this request. I am not looking for the detailed manifests described in that response. I have those already. What I am looking for is the archive of records for back history similar to the current pdf's found in the link below. These are CF1401 and CF1400 records and they are published on a weekly basis. I would like those records for all of 2017 and 2018 as well as January and February 2019. Here are the links to find this month's data, you'll notice the pdf on the right hand side and I am requesting historical copies of those. https://www.cbp.gov/document/forms/cf-1400-record-vessel-foreign-trade-entrances https://www.cbp.gov/document/forms/cf-1401-record-vessel-foreign-trade-clearances It is very similar to request CBP-OFO-2016-030032 but for newer data. Each time I have asked what the hold up is and they never give me any information, most of the times they are very rude. I have only in countered one individual that was nice and that was on July 25, 2018, other than that everyone else was overly rude. I would like to find out why I am sent for a secondary screening every time we travel internationally. I am traveling again in July 2019 and would like to not have this issue ever again. I traveled October 2015, January 2017, July 2018, December 2018. Each time I was stopped and then released with no explanation. The most recent was in Mobile Alabama Cruise Port where the agents were very rude and I felt discriminated against. One of the officers asked the other, "do you believe he has never been in jail"? Very rude and unprofessional, I have never had any problems with any law enforcement. Please send my FOIA file so I may know what is listed under my name.	3/19/2019

CBP-2019-037453	(b)(6)	I have a rental property just south of the boarder in Plyas de Tijuana. I also spend a good portion of time at my girlfriends in Oceanside. My current work is doing both Uber and Lyft. Due to medical conditions this is my income for now. I have a current TWIC credential and have undergone numerous background checks. On Fri 03/15/2019 I was stopped and questioned by a CHP officer who stated he pulled me over for a phone holder and air freshener blocking my window view. I was questions regarding drugs money and other things and gave permission to search my car. It was obvious this officer was not concerned over my phone holder. After and hour of a though car search in which the officer violently damaged areas of my car it was obvious that he thought something for some reason. He proceeded to argue with me about where I had been that day as well. When I mentioned I have a tracking unit that's feeds to my phone so I can print reports for business miles he quickly changed the subject. Fast forward to monday 03/17/2019 I was returning from my girlfriends house and was stopped by a boarder patrol truck. I then figured it out. Having come from a tech background my plate is flagged in a system someplace. It was much shorter with the boarder patrol officer who I allowed to search my car to. Now I am really in a bind. Without knowing if everytime I drive someplace I will get stopped for I don't know what or why puts me out of work. Can't drive Uber or Lyft so I am left with no income. Obviously I am flagged in the national plate system but why I don't know. I am quite concerned as I do primarily stay in Mexico. If I even knew what agency to contact and why mabe with my tracking system I can get things clear and go back to work.	3/20/2019

CBP-2019-037648	(b)(6)	I am requesting my file as each time I travel international they stop me which is causing a significant inconvenience to me and my family. We travel with an infant and another child and sometimes with our elderly grandmother. Each time they pull me, hold me for a long period of time then release me with no explanation. Each time I have asked what the hold up is and they never give me any information, most of the times they are very rude. I have only in countered one individual that was nice and that was on July 25, 2018, other than that everyone else was overly rude. I would like to find out why I am sent for a secondary screening every time we travel internationally. I am traveling again in July 2019 and would like to not have this issue ever again. I traveled October 2015, January 2017, July 2018, December 2018. Each time I was stopped and then released with no explanation. The most recent was in Mobile Alabama Cruise Port where the agents were very rude and I felt discriminated against. One of the officers asked the other, "do you believe he has never been in jail"? Very rude and unprofessional, I have never had any problems with any law enforcement. Please send my FOIA file so I may know what is listed under my name.	3/20/2019

CBP-2019-038565	(b)(6)	Every time I come back into the United States from a trip abroad I am pulled out of the customs line and put through special processing as though I am a criminal. CBP-2019-038599	(b)(6)	I am Canadian since September 23rd, 2000. Recently(March 12th) I was stopped at the POE Lynden, WA and asked to apply for the waiver, because (after almost 20 years in Canada and multiple annual trips across the border with no concern whatsoever...) CBP agents "discovered" that back in 1999-2000 I apparently "briefly overstayed L1 visa". My sincere concern is that I was visiting the US on multiple visas, starting with J-1 visa in April 1994 as the exchange young professional. After that I have visited the US on travel B-visas and never broke any regulations. My short-term F-visa was issued in September 1998 for a Work & Study program and my foreign employer hired a lawyer to extend my stay in the US and adjust my status to L in January of 1999. That's when, to my extreme regret, I entrusted my relationship with USCIS to hired professionals that I practically never met, nor communicated to. They were in San-Francisco but company requested me to open office in Los-Angeles where I relocated late January 1999. As far as I remember the L-1 was granted for 2 years and I stayed in the US until 2000. But, since I had no personal desire to stay in the US forever and didn't want to continue my working relationship with the Russian company I started my independent application for skilled immigration to Canada and permanent visa was granted early September 2000, and I left for Canada (which CBP agents have no trace of) on September 23rd, 2000. I am totally fine to apply for a waiver, but need to get my FOIA records to be able to do that, so I can see what exactly we are talking about. Problem is - I don't have any papers left from that time - no A-number, no i-94s, no corporate records, and no contacts with neither Russian company or the lawyer they hired to handle the case. etc... I feel profoundly shameful, as I never overstayed any legal terms of any visit to the US, nor never I had a reason to do so, and I would leave in a moment if I knew my L-status was revoked.	3/25/2019

For the purpose of this request, documents regarding "identification of responders" includes, but is not limited to: recipient addresses of emails received in the account Wall_Innovations@hq.dhs.gov: logs of respondents to this address and/or solicitation named above: and correspondence regarding said recipients. A May 25 amendment to the RFI stated that proposals had been reviewed and included as part of CBP's "long-term acquisition planning for border security investments including barrier construction and technology." The July 7, 2017 update to the solicitation notice said "Approximately 290 responses were received to the Wall_Innovations@hq.dhs.gov mailbox, totaling over 350 emails and 1,500 pages of content." Though the update also states that "The responses received are confidential to each company, thus DHS will not be disclosing their content outside of the Government," this request concerns the names and contact information for responders, not the content of the response.	3/26/2019

CBP-2019-039637	(b)(6)	My SENTRI Card was taken away from me when crossing the border into the US. I went through a crossing that did not offer SENTRI lane. This was done, because my vehicle was not registered for the SENTRI lane. This occurred in Brownsville, TX, where we have three bridges to cross the border, but only one bridge offers SENTRI access (Veterans Bridge). That day, I crossed via Gateway bridge. The officer questioned why I used that bridge, provided that I have a SENTRI card. I advised him that the vehicle I was driving, was not the vehicle that was registered to use for the SENTRI lane. Because of this, I was sent over to secondary inspection and had my SENTRI card taken away from me. I was told that they were going to look up information on me, and that is why they needed my SENTRI card. I was not detained, nor issued any kind of warning or fine for what occurred. I was free to go. However, my SENTRI card was revoked. I still don't understand why my SENTRI card was revoked. This occurred between 2011 and 2016. I am now trying to obtain my SENTRI again, and was advised by the CBP office to request this information from FOIA. I committed no crime, and do not understand why it was revoked nor why I cannot move forward in the process of a new request. I would like to know why my SENTRI was revoked, so that I can once again apply and obtain my trusted traveler pass. My entire family are trusted travelers.	3/27/2019

Historically I go on an annual fishing trip with my father the first full week of June or over Labor day weekend in September. I can't remember the years I have went since 2012 as I have missed some due to childbirth and new employment.
