Visa Waiver Program (VWP) Signatory Carriers

April 1, 2023

In order to facilitate the arrival of Visa Waiver Program (VWP) passengers, carriers need to be signatory to a current agreement with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). A carrier is required to be signatory to an agreement in order to transport aliens seeking admission as nonimmigrant visitors under the VWP (Title 8, U.S.C. § 1187(a)(5)). The carriers listed below are currently signatory to the VWP and can transport passengers under the program. The date indicates the expiration of the current signed agreement. Agreements are valid for 7 years.

If you transport VWP passengers and are not a signatory carrier, fines will be levied. Use the following link to apply to CBP to become a Signatory Carrier:

<https://www.cbp.gov/travel/international-visitors/business-pleasure/vwp/signatory-status>

Please Note: Beginning January 1, 2022, the VWP list of approved carriers will contain new information. Just after the carrier's name will be three letters marked off by "[???]". These letters are IATA Codes assigned to the carriers. If your company has an IATA Code, please confirm the information listed.

Note: Please refer to the bottom of this list for the VWP list of approved carriers who were approved for participation in the program prior to the imposition of an expiration date. These carriers are approved indefinitely and are not subject to an expiration date.
