Combatting Organized Theft Groups

Day 3: 9:45am, 11:15am (Momentum D) only

Retailers in the United States experience approximately $70 billion in losses annually due to theft. Theft of cargo from ports of entry, at truck stops, and on the railways accounts for up to an additional $35 billion in annual losses. The theft isn't just losses to businesses – it also threatens the U.S. economy and our security. In response, Homeland Security Investigations' Operation Boiling Point targets the criminal networks that profit from retail and cargo theft, along with other theft-related crimes. Hear from HSI and other experts on how law enforcement relies on its public and private-sector partners to further advance this national program.
