

IMPORTANT UPDATE UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES NEW SECURE INK

On July 1, 2014, U. S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) began using a new secure blue ink for many of its secure stamps. The older secure red ink will be retired and no longer used by USCIS on the effective date.

On July 1, 2014, USCIS began using the following list of stamps with secure blue ink:

- Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Parole Stamp
- Temporary I-551 Alien Documentary Identification and Telecommunication (ADIT) Stamp
- Refugee Stamp (Section 207)
- Asylum Stamp (Section 208)
- Initial / Replacement Form I-94 Stamp
