SUBJECT: Amendment to Administrative Message 0356071, Renewal of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP)

The purpose of this notice is to amend administrative message 0356071, dated Wednesday, December 22, 1999 that advised U.S. Customs field personnel and the trade community of the renewal of the GSP for 1999.

The third paragraph of the message presently reads, "The entry of any article to which duty-free treatment under title V of the Trade Act of 1974 would have applied if the entry had been made on or before June 30 1999, and that was made after June 30, 1999, and before the date of the enactment of this act, shall be liquidated or reliquidated as free of duty, and Customs shall refund any duty paid with respect to such entry."

The third paragraph of the message should read, "The entry of any article to which duty-free treatment under title V of the Trade Act of 1974 would have applied if the entry had been made on July 1, 1999, and such title had been in effect on July 1, 1999, and that was made after June 30, 1999, and before the date of the enactment of this Act, shall be liquidated or reliquidated as free of duty, and Customs shall refund any duty paid with respect to such entry."

Questions regarding this notice should be directed to Leon Hayward, International Agreements, at (202) 927-9704.
