

Your Career Protecting America

U. S. Customs and Border Protection Marine Interdiction Agent

Protecting Our Homeland

The mission of the Customs and Border Protection Office of Air and Marine is to protect the American people and Nation's critical infrastructure through the coordinated use of integrated air and marine forces to detect, interdict and prevent acts of terrorism and the unlawful movement of people, illegal drugs and other contraband toward or across the borders of the United States. To accomplish this mission, men and women of CBP Office of Air and Marine not only need great character, integrity and self-motivation but must also possess technical skills to meet mission operations. Serving as a CBP Marine Interdiction Agent means you are part of the world's largest law enforcement air & marine force that is deeply dedicated to protecting and securing our nation.

Big Job, Big Responsibility

As part of an elite group of Marine Interdiction Agents, you will patrol oceans, lakes, and rivers to prevent the illegal entry of weapons of terror, interdict illegal narcotics and prevent the entry of undocumented aliens. You will command and crew various vessels in some of the most demanding situations. You will conduct covert and overt operations against terrorist activities and operate with some of the Nation's top law enforcement agencies. You may deploy to natural disaster areas to help those in need. You will operate at night and in adverse weather conditions.

U.S. Customs and
Border Protection

Activities Include

- Playing a lead role in CBP's critical anti-terrorism mission
- Commanding multiple vessels
- Detecting, tracking, and interdicting vessels and personnel
- Working with fellow law enforcement officers or personnel from CBP and other Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies
- Securing the maritime borders of the world's greatest nation

Are You Ready for the Job?

You must meet the following minimum requirements to successfully gain consideration for entry-level employment

- U.S Citizen
- Successfully complete a thorough background investigation and drug test
- Pass a standardized physical
- Marine/law enforcement experience preferred
- U.S. Coast Guard Marine license to qualify for GS-1801-9 and above
- Successfully complete a three part interview process to include:
 1. A written exam
 2. A 3 panel oral interview
 3. A vessel evaluation
- Appointed before reaching your 40th birthday

A Rewarding Career Protecting the Homeland

Generous benefits and pay include the following

- Entry for this U.S. Federal position is at the GS-09 with non-competitive promotion potential to GS-12 plus Administratively Uncontrollable Overtime (AUO)
- Federal health insurance, retirement Thrift Savings Plan (similar to a 401k)
- Life insurance - Long term care insurance - Extensive leave days
- Uniform allowance and flexible spending accounts

U.S. Customs and Border Protection is an Equal Opportunity Employer

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

www.cbp.gov

